21ST. YEAR NO. 104. EAST LIVERPOOL., O., MONDAY, MAY 2, 1904. TWO CENTS.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE WILL MEET THIS EVENING

CANVASS PROGRESSING AT A VERY GOOD RATE

A meeting of the Republican city central committee has been called for this evening, and the session will probably mark the beginning of the active campaign to be waged in this county in behalf of J. L. MacDonald as an independent candidate for county auditor.

The city committee elected at the last county primary has not been regularly installed as the working force of the Republican party, and though it was expected the meeting would be held sooner, it is likely the leaders had their reason for holding it off. At the meeting tonight the committee will reorganize and a plan of action mapped out for conducting the campaign. There will be no opposition to the re-election of W. L. Smith as city chairman. Mr. Smith has directed the committee for several years, and the handsome majorities rolled up for the party at each election is evidence of his efficiency as a leader.

From present indications there will be a contest for the position of city secretary, as several ambitious young politicians are said to be lining up for the job. However that may be the man who secures the position will be an active worker and take hold of the duties thus imposed in a manner that will be satisfactory to the committee and the party.

The solicitors who have been making a canvass for signatures to a petition to the secretary of state asking that the independent ticket be made a part of the official ballot this fall, have been active during the past week, and it is expected a report will be made to the city committee tonight as to the progress made. It is understood several hundred names have already been secured, and that the territory has scarcely been commenced on. No attention will be paid to the actual number of names required by law because it will be an object to secure an expression from the Republican voters, as well as to comply with the statutes in such cases.

The canvassers will complete the entire city of East Liverpool before moving to another base of operations. Wellsville will be the next district, and it is expected 95 per cent of the voters will favor the plan in that city. Those at the head of the movement will not be satisfied with this, and the solicitors will be sent into the township adjoining, where assurance has been given that the feeling is very strong for the independent candidate.

The committee of 12 appointed at the mass meeting to act in conjunction with the city committees of East Liverpool and Wellsville has been active in its own peculiar way, and though few of its members are practical politicians they are thought to have worked out a plan of action which will be effective and far-reaching. It may be that this committee will not meet with the city committee tonight, but very soon after the reorganization it is understood the entire working forces will get together and map out the campaign.

GLASS AND WIFE ARE RECONCILED

HE DOES NOT BLAME HER

A reconciliation was effected in the troubles of Rev. John Glass and his wife on Saturday evening. The minister appeared at the city hall to testify against Elza Wier, whom he had charged with a statutory offense, but at the same time Mrs. Glass, who had been in Chester, appeared on the scene, accompanied by her father. A short conference was held and when the wife promised to go home with her father the minister agreed to drop the case. Wier was then discharged.

"I cannot but think that my wife has been sinned against more than she has been sinning," said Rev. John Glass, formerly a Christian church minister located at Irondale, but now employed at the Wellsville sheet mill. "I am selling all our household goods," said the minister, "and as I have obtained a room in Wellsville I hope that I shall live hereafter a life of peace."

So the minister spoke today when he told of the recent unpleasant events that took place at his home on the Liverpool road, and which resulted in the arrest of Elza Wier.

"As to what I shall do hereafter in this case," said Mr. Glass, "I cannot tell now. I cannot say I shall enter

MURPHY POTTERY SITE WANTED BY THE WABASH

Whether the Wabash Railroad company proposes to come down Beaver creek to some jumping off place and then run a balloon service over the hills to the city proper, as some young reporters would have the people believe, is not known. The News Review does not deal with conjectures; when there is news, backed by fact, it will appear first in this paper. A representative of the Wabash railroad was in the city today, and the facts concerning his visit and the object thereof are given for what they are worth.

The gentleman's name was withheld for some unaccountable reason, but it is known that he spent most of the day in conference with the owners of the George C. Murphy pottery interests. He came to town on an early train and at once sought Mr. Murphy and his associates at their office in the Citizen's National bank building. The members of the firm were interviewed, and while they refused to discuss the matter one way or the other, there was a suspicious twinkle which denoted satisfaction in every line of their faces.

A proposition was made to the firm which had for its object the securing of an option upon the pottery site on the river bank at the foot of Union street. The offer was refused. It is understood the company will sell the land; in fact, the Pennsylvania railroad has been negotiating for its purchase for some time. If the Wabash will purchase outright at the local company's own figure a deal can be made in short order, but the pottery firm will give no options.

Meantime, the Murphy company is going steadily forward with its preparation for a new pottery, and if either of the big corporations desire to purchase the property they must act quickly.

MRS. WALKER ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

"I'll never go down to that jail alive," said Mrs. Dick Walker this afternoon at 2:30 when Officer McDermott informed her that she was under arrest, together with her husband and two other men, on a charge of being drunk and disorderly at the Walker home, Summit lane. As she finished the remark she drew an ounce bottle of laudanum from her clothing, raised it to her lips, and drank two-thirds of the contents before the officer could seize the poison.

The officer realized that she had taken enough of the drug to kill an ordinary person and the patrol wagon having already arrived on the scene, he had her hauled to the city hall and immediately summoned Dr. C. B. Ogden. When the physician arrived the woman was writhing in agony and it was feared that she would not recover. However, the antidotes given her by Dr. Ogden soon had her vomiting and her pain was lessened. The physician thinks she will not die, as, according to her own statement, she is addicted to the use of the drug.

While in her greatest suffering, Mrs. Walker repeatedly asked for the remainder of the laudanum. She wanted to die and said that she would finish the job just as soon as she gets out of jail.

COUNTY CONVENTION OF PROHIBITIONISTS

COLD WATER PEOPLE WILL NAME A TICKET TONIGHT.

Special Preparation Made for the Entertainment of Those Who Will Assemble This Evening.

The Prohibition county convention will be held in this city tonight. A call for the meeting was sent out several weeks ago, and delegates will be present from every section of the county. S. J. Faulk, of this city, is county chairman, and will preside at the meeting, which will be held in the Grand Army hall on Fifth street.

The convention has been called for the purpose of placing a ticket in the field at the regular fall election, and it is said the party men will make nominations for every office to be voted for. The party has become a factor in the county within the last few years and the necessity for placing a man in the field for all the offices has appealed to the leaders more strongly this year than ever before.

The local branch of the Prohibition Alliance has been meeting at regular intervals, and the interest in this part of the county has not been allowed to die out. Weekly meetings have been held, and in nearly every instance a program has been arranged, and carried out.

Special preparation has been made for the entertainment of all who attend the convention tonight. The attendance will not be confined to delegates alone, but a large number of people who are interested in the temperance movement here and elsewhere will be in attendance. In addition to the business to be transacted, a literary and musical program will be rendered. Dr. J. Howard Davis and Prof. Harry Moore will read, and a musical program has been arranged by Prof. T. B. Bahl. The Bahl quartet will perform, and several other numbers of real merit will be rendered.

East Liverpool Admitted to Western Pennsylvania And Eastern Ohio Association.

Warren, May 2.—The seventh annual reunion of the Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania Association of Letter Carriers was held in this city Saturday afternoon with persons present from Greenville, Sharon, New Castle, Youngstown, Niles, Warren, East Liverpool and Cleveland.

The officials elected were: President, F. S. Van Gorder, Warren; vice president, C. P. Fitch, Sharon; secretary, William Carey, East Liverpool; treasurer, W. S. Lloyd, Sharon; sergeant-at-arms, James Anderson, Youngstown; executive committee, "Steve" McDermott, J. C. Ruedy, Joseph Aultman, Arthur Ferns, M. J. Van Gorder, R. F. McCluskey. East Liverpool and Ravenna were given membership in the association. At 6 o'clock a sumptuous banquet was served at the Elliott house, after which informal remarks were made by a number of the visitors.

Orders of Court.

Lisbon, May 2.—(Special.)—A writ of partition has been issued in common pleas court in the case of William R. Wilson, Ellen Ratcliffe et al, in which the plaintiff asks that his one-twelfth interest in lot 10 in George Wells' first addition to Wellsville be set off to him, and John H. Catlett, W. G. Stewart and A. S. Rogers are appointed commissioners to make the division.

The Old Wages for Assessors.

Columbus, May 2.—(Special.)—This notice, which is self-explanatory, is being sent to county auditors by Auditor of State Guilbert: "The Silverberg senate bill to increase the per diem compensation of assessors was erroneously reported to have passed. It failed to pass the house and is not therefore a law, and the compensation of assessors will remain the same as before.

UNIONISTS PLAN TO OWN BIG STORE

Arrangements About to Be Made For Co-Operative Company Business.

POTTERS FAVOR THE IDEA

Backers of Movement to Meet Soon to Discuss Plans for Formation of Company, and Main Street Room May Be Engaged.

Preliminary steps have been taken by a number of prominent labor unionists in Wellsville for the establishing of a co-operative general store. Shares are to be sold at $10 each, and from 1,500 to 2,500 shares will be placed on the market.

Employes of the Wellsville plant of the American Sheet and Tin Plate company have fathered this idea, but the facts of the proposition have been kept quiet for various reasons. It is now announced that a meeting of those interested in the movement will be held within a fortnight to perfect arrangements for the organization of a company. At the same time the matter of placing stock on the market is to be given consideration.

The proposition includes not only the selling of groceries, but to have an up-to-date department store. Here anything can be purchased that is desired. It is said that the plan is to sell goods at just enough margin to bring a fair return upon the amount of capital invested, and that at the end of each year a dividend is to be declared.

It was generally reported Saturday night that the scheme of having such a store in Wellsville was meeting with the approval of many unionists, and some were heard to say immediately that they would take from five to 25 shares of stock. As the proposition now stands, nothing definite is assured. No location for a store room has been sought, although it is known that a large room on Main street will soon be vacated, and perhaps those back of the movement may seek a lease on the building.

Pottery employes look with favor upon the scheme, and some of these workmen say they stand ready to take stock in the business. Such a scheme was tried in East Liverpool recently, but the business failed. It is alleged the reason for this was mismanagement, rather than any flaw in the plans, under which the store was operated.

NARROW ESCAPE WHILE BOATING

A Venturesome Young Man And a Young Lady Come Near Going Over a Dam.

Lisbon, May 2.—(Special.)—While boating on the dam at the west end of Walnut street yesterday afternoon Fred Clunk and Miss Mary Robinson found themselves in a queer predicament. Clunk was amusing himself by rowing up close to the breast of the dam and away again before reaching a point where the current was too strong for him, much to the terror of his companion. He ventured too close at length and was carried up on the breast, but the boat stopped with the prow projecting out over the waterfall.

Clunk succeeded in keeping the boat from going over the dam, but was unable to extricate himself and the young lady from their embarrasing situation, in which they remained until Walter Johnston and Will Dorrance waded out to their assistance.

Licensed to Marry.

Lisbon, May 2.—(Special.)—Bert Jackson and Bessie R. Mannis, of East Liverpool, have been granted a marriage license.

LIVELY ANTICS OF LIVE WIRE

Marshall Green, employed at the Lewis Bros. furniture store, had a most exciting experience and narrow escape from death on Saturday evening. He came near being the victim of a live wire and that he escaped was due only to his sprinting ability.

He went to the rear of the store to find a piece of furniture and the apartment being dark, stepped over to the switch and turned on the electricity. The insulation on the wire had worn off, leaving it bare against a conductor which formed a short cirsuit. Like a flash the electricity started to jumping around the room. It broke the wire and the current was so strong that the wire was thrown right and left, up and down. Green ran from the room in terror.

The result of the electricity's pranks was the burning of some stuff in the furniture store and burning out most of the lights in the store of D. M. Ogilvie, next door.

WILLIAM STILWELL IS UNDER ARREST

Nabbed on Old Charge of Contempt of Court on Appearing in Ohio.

Lisbon, May 2.—(Special.)—Sheriff A. J. Johnson left yesterday afternoon for Martin's Ferry, where William Stilwell, who is wanted here for contempt of court, is under arrest. Stilwell has been in contempt ever since he disappeared from East Liverpool during the September term, when he was subpoenaed as a witness against a man, who was charged with shooting him with intent to kill and wound.

Stilwell was arrested at Martin's Ferry on Saturday. It was his first visit there since he got word that he was wanted in Lisbon and left Ohio last fall. He has since been in Wheeling, but the Martin's Ferry officers have been keeping watch for him.

Malloy, as secretary of the coming Republican state convention, has been notified that the Central Passenger association has authorized all railroads in Ohio to sell tickets at a rate of one fare plus 25 cents for the round trip tickets to be sold May 16 and 17, good going on date of sale and good returning leaving Columbus not later than May 20.

SHOT HIMSELF FATALLY ALL FOR LOVE OF A GIRL

THE DOCTORS SAY THAT HE CANNOT RECOVER

Ernest Kerr, aged 18, an employe at Laughlin's pottery No. 2, lies at the Taylor hospital mortally wounded as the result of a gun shot wound in the breast, directly over the heart. The shot was fired by himself with suicidal intent on Saturday night at the home of Louis Groubert, a saloonist of Second street, and in the presence of Miss Carrie Groubert, aged 16.

The exact cause of the tragedy cannot be learned. The stories conflict, but it is generally believed that he sought death because of parental objection to his marriage to Miss Groubert. He has been keeping company with the girl for more than a year and has been very much infatuated with her. He so loved her that it made his blood boil to see or hear of her even talking with other boys. It is said that he was actuated to the deed by jeering remarks made to him by companions, relative to the stand taken by the girl's father against their marriage.

In a fit of fury he left the crowd and procuring a revolver went to the home of Miss Groubert. She was alone in the parlor above the saloon and says she thought Kerr acted strangely when he entered, but did not once suspect that he intended killing himself. He talked to her for quite a while and finally told her that he could not stand the determined effort to keep him from her and that rather than to endure it he would kill himself.

Like a flash he pulled a revolver and before the very eyes of the horror-stricken girl directed the gun at his heart and fired. He sank to the floor unconscious. It was a moment before the girl could regain her senses and then she rushed madly down stairs to give the alarm.

Those who hurried to the scene found the boy lying in a heap on the floor, his life's blood running from the wound. He was picked up and removed to the Taylor hospital, where Drs. Taylor and Norris attended him. Strong stimulants were administered all of yesterday and he was kept alive. His condition was worse today, and the physicians give no hope for his recovery.

Dr. Taylor at 3 o'clock this afternoon stated that the condition of Kerr was practically unchanged and that preparations are being made to use the X-ray machine this evening for the purpose of locating the bullet.

INSTANTLY KILLED BY A LIVE WIRE

Young Man Who Boarded in This City Electrocuted in Pittsburg.

William Converse, employed by the Automatic Fire Sprinkler company, of New York, was killed while at work in the Alvin theatre, Pittsburg, Saturday afternoon. His foot accidentally came in contact with a live wire carrying 4,000 volts and he was instantly killed and his body horribly burned.

Converse was known in this city, having spent some time here while engaged in installing a sprinkler system at the Globe and Murphy potteries. His home is said to have been in Indiana. While here he boarded at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Newman, on Walnut street.

THE SCALE IS SETTLED FOR THE NEXT TWO YEARS

As has been the custom with the management of the East Liverpool railway for the last three years, the time limit was taken before the agreement between the company and th men was signed. It was late Saturday night before Manager Healy affixed his name to the document, and it will stand for two years, instead of one as heretofore.

Notwithstanding that unreliable parties gave out the information this morning that no agreement had been reached, the scale was signed on time, and there will be little change in the working conditions or wages over what has been in force for several years.

The agreement entered into Saturday night provides that 20 cents per hour be paid to beginners, or what are known as one-year men. On the second year a rate of 22 cents an hour is fixed, and for the third year and thereafter the employes shall receive 23 cents per hour. This applies to both motormen and conductors. Both branches of the business are members of the union and no distinction is made between the two. The signing of the agreement by the East Liverpool management means that there will be no controversy between the company and the men for the next two years, and the traveling public will be thankful in consequence.

The employes of the East Liverpool & Rock Springs road did not present the old agreement, claiming that it would remain in force without the formality of another signature. The men on this line deny that they ever gave out the statement that they contemplted asking more money or better conditions. It is a fact that they contemplate organizing a separate union with headquarters at Chester, but beyond that they have nothing in view.

UNIONISTS PLAN TO OWN BIG STORE

Arrangements About to Be Made For Co-Operative Company Business.

GLASS AND WIFE ARE RECONCILED

HE DOES NOT BLAME HER

A reconciliation was effected in the troubles of Rev. John Glass and his wife on Saturday evening. The minister appeared at the city hall to testify against Elza Wier, whom he had charged with a statutory offense, but at the same time Mrs. Glass, who had been in Chester, appeared on the scene, accompanied by her father. John Glass, formerly a Christian church minister located at Irondale, but now employed at the Wellsville sheet mill. "I am selling all our household goods," said the minister, "and as I have obtained a room in Wellsville I hope that I shall live hereafter a life of peace."

So the minister spoke today when he told of the recent unpleasant events that took place at his home on the Liverpool road, and which resulted in the arrest of Elza Wier.

"As to what I shall do hereafter in this case," said Mr. Glass, "I cannot tell now. I cannot say I shall enter

Lisbon, May 2.—(Special.)—While boating on the dam at the west end of Walnut street yesterday afternoon Fred Clunk and Miss Mary Robinson found themselves in a queer predicament. Clunk was amusing himself by rowing up close to the breast of the dam and away again before reaching a point where the current was too strong for him, much to the terror of his companion. He ventured too close at length and was carried up on the breast, but the boat stopped with the prow projecting out over the waterfall.

Clunk succeeded in keeping the boat from going over the dam, but was unable to extricate himself and the young lady from their embarrasing situation, in which they remained until Walter Johnston and Will Dorrance waded out to their assistance.

Stilwell was arrested at Martin's Ferry on Saturday. It was his first visit there since he got word that he was wanted in Lisbon and left Ohio last fall. He has since been in Wheeling, but the Martin's Ferry officers have been keeping watch for him.

Converse was known in this city, having spent some time here while engaged in installing a sprinkler system at the Globe and Murphy potteries. His home is said to have been in Indiana. While here he boarded at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Newman, on Walnut street.

MURPHY POTTERY SITE WANTED BY THE WABASH

Whether the Wabash Railroad company proposes to come down Beaver creek to some jumping off place and then run a balloon service over the hills to the city proper, as some young reporters would have the people believe, is not known. The News Review does not deal with conjectures; when there is news, backed by fact, it will appear first in this paper. A representative of the Wabash railroad was in the city today, and the facts concerning his visit and the object thereof are given for what they are worth.

The gentleman's name was withheld for some unaccountable reason, but it is known that he spent most of the day in conference with the owners of the George C. Murphy pottery interests. He came to town on an early train and at once sought Mr. Murphy and his associates at their office in the Citizen's National bank building. The members of the firm were interviewed, and while they refused to discuss the matter one way or the other, there was a suspicious twinkle which denoted satisfaction in every line of their faces.

A proposition was made to the firm which had for its object the securing of an option upon the pottery site on the river bank at the foot of Union street. The offer was refused. It is understood the company will sell the land; in fact, the Pennsylvania railroad has been negotiating for its purchase for some time. If the Wabash will purchase outright at the local company's own figure a deal can be made in short order, but the pottery firm will give no options.

Meantime, the Murphy company is going steadily forward with its preparation for a new pottery, and if either of the big corporations desire to purchase the property they must act quickly.

THE SCALE IS SETTLED FOR THE NEXT TWO YEARS

As has been the custom with the management of the East Liverpool railway for the last three years, the time limit was taken before the agreement between the company and th men was signed. It was late Saturday night before Manager Healy affixed his name to the document, and it will stand for two years, instead of one as heretofore.

Notwithstanding that unreliable parties gave out the information this morning that no agreement had been reached, the scale was signed on time, and there will be little change in the working conditions or wages over what has been in force for several years.

The agreement entered into Saturday night provides that 20 cents per hour be paid to beginners, or what are known as one-year men. On the second year a rate of 22 cents an hour is fixed, and for the third year and thereafter the employes shall receive 23 cents per hour. This applies to both motormen and conductors. Both branches of the business are members of the union and no distinction is made between the two. The signing of the agreement by the East Liverpool management means that there will be no controversy between the company and the men for the next two years, and the traveling public will be thankful in consequence.

The employes of the East Liverpool & Rock Springs road did not present the old agreement, claiming that it would remain in force without the formality of another signature. The men on this line deny that they ever gave out the statement that they contemplted asking more money or better conditions. It is a fact that they contemplate organizing a separate union with headquarters at Chester, but beyond that they have nothing in view.

21ST. YEAR NO. 104. EAST LIVERPOOL., O., MONDAY, MAY 2, 1904. TWO CENTS.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE WILL MEET THIS EVENING

CANVASS PROGRESSING AT A VERY GOOD RATE

A meeting of the Republican city central committee has been called for this evening, and the session will probably mark the beginning of the active campaign to be waged in this county in behalf of J. L. MacDonald as an independent candidate for county auditor.

The city committee elected at the last county primary has not been regularly installed as the working force of the Republican party, and though it was expected the meeting would be held sooner, it is likely the leaders had their reason for holding it off. At the meeting tonight the committee will reorganize and a plan of action mapped out for conducting the campaign. There will be no opposition to the re-election of W. L. Smith as city chairman. Mr. Smith has directed the committee for several years, and the handsome majorities rolled up for the party at each election is evidence of his efficiency as a leader.

From present indications there will be a contest for the position of city secretary, as several ambitious young politicians are said to be lining up for the job. However that may be the man who secures the position will be an active worker and take hold of the duties thus imposed in a manner that will be satisfactory to the committee and the party.

The solicitors who have been making a canvass for signatures to a petition to the secretary of state asking that the independent ticket be made a part of the official ballot this fall, have been active during the past week, and it is expected a report will be made to the city committee tonight as to the progress made. It is understood several hundred names have already been secured, and that the territory has scarcely been commenced on. No attention will be paid to the actual number of names required by law because it will be an object to secure an expression from the Republican voters, as well as to comply with the statutes in such cases.

The canvassers will complete the entire city of East Liverpool before moving to another base of operations. Wellsville will be the next district, and it is expected 95 per cent of the voters will favor the plan in that city. Those at the head of the movement will not be satisfied with this, and the solicitors will be sent into the township adjoining, where assurance has been given that the feeling is very strong for the independent candidate.

The committee of 12 appointed at the mass meeting to act in conjunction with the city committees of East Liverpool and Wellsville has been active in its own peculiar way, and though few of its members are practical politicians they are thought to have worked out a plan of action which will be effective and far-reaching. It may be that this committee will not meet with the city committee tonight, but very soon after the reorganization it is understood the entire working forces will get together and map out the campaign.

GLASS AND WIFE ARE RECONCILED

HE DOES NOT BLAME HER

A reconciliation was effected in the troubles of Rev. John Glass and his wife on Saturday evening. The minister appeared at the city hall to testify against Elza Wier, whom he had charged with a statutory offense, but at the same time Mrs. Glass, who had been in Chester, appeared on the scene, accompanied by her father. A short conference was held and when the wife promised to go home with her father the minister agreed to drop the case. Wier was then discharged.

"I cannot but think that my wife has been sinned against more than she has been sinning," said Rev. John Glass, formerly a Christian church minister located at Irondale, but now employed at the Wellsville sheet mill. "I am selling all our household goods," said the minister, "and as I have obtained a room in Wellsville I hope that I shall live hereafter a life of peace."

So the minister spoke today when he told of the recent unpleasant events that took place at his home on the Liverpool road, and which resulted in the arrest of Elza Wier.

"As to what I shall do hereafter in this case," said Mr. Glass, "I cannot tell now. I cannot say I shall enter

MRS. WALKER ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

"I'll never go down to that jail alive," said Mrs. Dick Walker this afternoon at 2:30 when Officer McDermott informed her that she was under arrest, together with her husband and two other men, on a charge of being drunk and disorderly at the Walker home, Summit lane. As she finished the remark she drew an ounce bottle of laudanum from her clothing, raised it to her lips, and drank two-thirds of the contents before the officer could seize the poison.

The officer realized that she had taken enough of the drug to kill an ordinary person and the patrol wagon having already arrived on the scene, he had her hauled to the city hall and immediately summoned Dr. C. B. Ogden. When the physician arrived the woman was writhing in agony and it was feared that she would not recover. However, the antidotes given her by Dr. Ogden soon had her vomiting and her pain was lessened. The physician thinks she will not die, as, according to her own statement, she is addicted to the use of the drug.

While in her greatest suffering, Mrs. Walker repeatedly asked for the remainder of the laudanum. She wanted to die and said that she would finish the job just as soon as she gets out of jail.

COUNTY CONVENTION OF PROHIBITIONISTS

COLD WATER PEOPLE WILL NAME A TICKET TONIGHT.

Special Preparation Made for the Entertainment of Those Who Will Assemble This Evening.

The Prohibition county convention will be held in this city tonight. A call for the meeting was sent out several weeks ago, and delegates will be present from every section of the county. S. J. Faulk, of this city, is county chairman, and will preside at the meeting, which will be held in the Grand Army hall on Fifth street.

The convention has been called for the purpose of placing a ticket in the field at the regular fall election, and it is said the party men will make nominations for every office to be voted for. The party has become a factor in the county within the last few years and the necessity for placing a man in the field for all the offices has appealed to the leaders more strongly this year than ever before.

The local branch of the Prohibition Alliance has been meeting at regular intervals, and the interest in this part of the county has not been allowed to die out. Weekly meetings have been held, and in nearly every instance a program has been arranged, and carried out.

Special preparation has been made for the entertainment of all who attend the convention tonight. The attendance will not be confined to delegates alone, but a large number of people who are interested in the temperance movement here and elsewhere will be in attendance. In addition to the business to be transacted, a literary and musical program will be rendered. Dr. J. Howard Davis and Prof. Harry Moore will read, and a musical program has been arranged by Prof. T. B. Bahl. The Bahl quartet will perform, and several other numbers of real merit will be rendered.

UNIONISTS PLAN TO OWN BIG STORE

Arrangements About to Be Made For Co-Operative Company Business.

POTTERS FAVOR THE IDEA

Backers of Movement to Meet Soon to Discuss Plans for Formation of Company, and Main Street Room May Be Engaged.

Preliminary steps have been taken by a number of prominent labor unionists in Wellsville for the establishing of a co-operative general store. Shares are to be sold at $10 each, and from 1,500 to 2,500 shares will be placed on the market.

Employes of the Wellsville plant of the American Sheet and Tin Plate company have fathered this idea, but the facts of the proposition have been kept quiet for various reasons. It is now announced that a meeting of those interested in the movement will be held within a fortnight to perfect arrangements for the organization of a company. At the same time the matter of placing stock on the market is to be given consideration.

The proposition includes not only the selling of groceries, but to have an up-to-date department store. Here anything can be purchased that is desired. It is said that the plan is to sell goods at just enough margin to bring a fair return upon the amount of capital invested, and that at the end of each year a dividend is to be declared.

It was generally reported Saturday night that the scheme of having such a store in Wellsville was meeting with the approval of many unionists, and some were heard to say immediately that they would take from five to 25 shares of stock. As the proposition now stands, nothing definite is assured. No location for a store room has been sought, although it is known that a large room on Main street will soon be vacated, and perhaps those back of the movement may seek a lease on the building.

Pottery employes look with favor upon the scheme, and some of these workmen say they stand ready to take stock in the business. Such a scheme was tried in East Liverpool recently, but the business failed. It is alleged the reason for this was mismanagement, rather than any flaw in the plans, under which the store was operated.

LIVELY ANTICS OF LIVE WIRE

Marshall Green, employed at the Lewis Bros. furniture store, had a most exciting experience and narrow escape from death on Saturday evening. He came near being the victim of a live wire and that he escaped was due only to his sprinting ability.

He went to the rear of the store to find a piece of furniture and the apartment being dark, stepped over to the switch and turned on the electricity. The insulation on the wire had worn off, leaving it bare against a conductor which formed a short cirsuit. Like a flash the electricity started to jumping around the room. It broke the wire and the current was so strong that the wire was thrown right and left, up and down. Green ran from the room in terror.

The result of the electricity's pranks was the burning of some stuff in the furniture store and burning out most of the lights in the store of D. M. Ogilvie, next door.

SHOT HIMSELF FATALLY ALL FOR LOVE OF A GIRL

THE DOCTORS SAY THAT HE CANNOT RECOVER

Ernest Kerr, aged 18, an employe at Laughlin's pottery No. 2, lies at the Taylor hospital mortally wounded as the result of a gun shot wound in the breast, directly over the heart. The shot was fired by himself with suicidal intent on Saturday night at the home of Louis Groubert, a saloonist of Second street, and in the presence of Miss Carrie Groubert, aged 16.

The exact cause of the tragedy cannot be learned. The stories conflict, but it is generally believed that he sought death because of parental objection to his marriage to Miss Groubert. He has been keeping company with the girl for more than a year and has been very much infatuated with her. He so loved her that it made his blood boil to see or hear of her even talking with other boys. It is said that he was actuated to the deed by jeering remarks made to him by companions, relative to the stand taken by the girl's father against their marriage.

In a fit of fury he left the crowd and procuring a revolver went to the home of Miss Groubert. She was alone in the parlor above the saloon and says she thought Kerr acted strangely when he entered, but did not once suspect that he intended killing himself. He talked to her for quite a while and finally told her that he could not stand the determined effort to keep him from her and that rather than to endure it he would kill himself.

Like a flash he pulled a revolver and before the very eyes of the horror-stricken girl directed the gun at his heart and fired. He sank to the floor unconscious. It was a moment before the girl could regain her senses and then she rushed madly down stairs to give the alarm.

Those who hurried to the scene found the boy lying in a heap on the floor, his life's blood running from the wound. He was picked up and removed to the Taylor hospital, where Drs. Taylor and Norris attended him. Strong stimulants were administered all of yesterday and he was kept alive. His condition was worse today, and the physicians give no hope for his recovery.

Dr. Taylor at 3 o'clock this afternoon stated that the condition of Kerr was practically unchanged and that preparations are being made to use the X-ray machine this evening for the purpose of locating the bullet.

BUSINESS BETTER.

Business with the local potteries is very gradually improving and several local manufacturers have grown more enthusiastic over the outlook. Last week business showed a noticeable improvement at several plants and shipments increased to some extent. The weather has been ascribed as the chief reason for the dull season and now that the first of May has been reached the jobbers are anticipating good shopping weather by placing orders held back for weeks. As nearly every plant has a big stock of ware on hand the improvement will not be immediately noticeable in the operating department.

SOME DISCREPANCY.

The East Liverpool correspondent of the Crockery and Glass Journal, in a current issue, refutes the assertion made by this and other newspapers as to the status of the hand printing trade. The journal quotes local manufacturers as authority and says: At the leading potteries such statements are said to be erroneous. On the contrary the use of decalcomania is increasing, while the printing machines are reported to be giving efficient and economical results—in fact, they have proved invaluable where large orders of the same kind are turned out. These statements may be correct, but there is a great discrepancy somewhere. It is a fact observed every day that there are more hand printers working today and the trade is better than for many months. True the new plants have caused a part of the demand, but it has been learned in decorating shops here that more hand printing is being done, the volume of business considered, than at this time last year. Any member of the printers' local, posted on present conditions, will talk enthusiastically about the revival in his trade. As to the printing machines they have not as yet come into general use. Comparatively few plants use them and their success has veen varied. The fact remains that more hand printing is being done, and as the volume of business has not increased correspondingly decalcomania must have suffered.

MAY BE HARVEY.

Another pottery has been projected at Parkersburg, according to the News. It is stated that Pittsburg capitalists are interested, but it is thought here that the promoter is none other than W. J. Harvey. It is stated by local manufacturers that Harvey and his associates have made propositions to a number of cities in this section.

TRENTON NOTES.

While assisting in the removal of some machinery at the Trenton knob works a few days ago Louis Schultz sustained a serious injury to his right foot. The instep was badly bruised and the foot was lacerated.

The final statement of John M. Dickinson, receiver of the Moses, Swann & McLewee company, decorators and glass manufacturers, shows that the total amount of claims presented and allowed was $92,378.17 and the total amount realized for distribution to the creditors is $11,288.81.

Robert Kackner, an employe of the Star Porcelain works, was badly cut on the head a few days ago by a lever descending too soon and striking him. He was knocked unconscious and was removed to St. Francis hospital for treatment.

The Jesse Dean decorating plant is unusually busy and the firm is advertising for more hands. The Greenwood Pottery company is also advertising for additional help.

Arthur Poole, art decorator at the Cook Pottery company, has just recovered from a severe attack of quinsy.

NEW SCALE ASKED.

A proposition of Sanitary Workers' local No. 45 to introduce a resolution at the N. B. of O. P. convention to be held at Trenton in July providing for the changing of the price list on certain kinds of sanitary ware was discussed at the meeting of the joint committee of the various locals. Although no definite result was announced in regard to the proposition, there is considerable sentiment in favor of it and it may be favorably acted on when the shop committee of local No. 45 has reported on the question more fully. In some of the potteries the operatives believe they are not receiving enough for making certain kinds of ware, and are asking for the revision. Others are satisfied with the existing scale and do not think the list should be tampered with. Local No. 35, kilnmen, at a regular meeting, considered the question of presenting a resolution at the next session of the governing body, asking that the price list for placing certain kinds of ware be changed. Secretary D. Coley was authorized to confer with the officers of the western locals and learn their ideas of the proposition before taking final action.

BUSINESS BETTER.

Business with the local potteries is very gradually improving and several local manufacturers have grown more enthusiastic over the outlook. Last week business showed a noticeable improvement at several plants and shipments increased to some extent. The weather has been ascribed as the chief reason for the dull season and now that the first of May has been reached the jobbers are anticipating good shopping weather by placing orders held back for weeks. As nearly every plant has a big stock of ware on hand the improvement will not be immediately noticeable in the operating department.

SOME DISCREPANCY.

The East Liverpool correspondent of the Crockery and Glass Journal, in a current issue, refutes the assertion made by this and other newspapers as to the status of the hand printing trade. The journal quotes local manufacturers as authority and says: At the leading potteries such statements are said to be erroneous. On the contrary the use of decalcomania is increasing, while the printing machines are reported to be giving efficient and economical results—in fact, they have proved invaluable where large orders of the same kind are turned out. These statements may be correct, but there is a great discrepancy somewhere. It is a fact observed every day that there are more hand printers working today and the trade is better than for many months. True the new plants have caused a part of the demand, but it has been learned in decorating shops here that more hand printing is being done, the volume of business considered, than at this time last year. Any member of the printers' local, posted on present conditions, will talk enthusiastically about the revival in his trade. As to the printing machines they have not as yet come into general use. Comparatively few plants use them and their success has veen varied. The fact remains that more hand printing is being done, and as the volume of business has not increased correspondingly decalcomania must have suffered.

MAY BE HARVEY.

Another pottery has been projected at Parkersburg, according to the News. It is stated that Pittsburg capitalists are interested, but it is thought here that the promoter is none other than W. J. Harvey. It is stated by local manufacturers that Harvey and his associates have made propositions to a number of cities in this section.

JUSTICE CARMAN HOME WITH HEALTH RESTORED

Visited Old Home and Saw Great Track Laying Machine on New Wabash Line.

Justice L. W. Carman returned Saturday evening from a two weeks' business and pleasure visit in Washington county, Pa. He has entirely recovered from the effects of a serious attack of the grip from which he had been suffering for several weeks. Justice Carman is one of the owners of some valuable farming and mineral lands in Washington county, the value of which has been enhanced by the new line of the Wabash railroad from Jewett to Pittsburg. The new road passes within a few hundred yards of the farm and it is probable that the owners will sell the coal rights in a short time.

Justice Carman saw the men at work in building what is supposed to be the most expensive piece of track in the United States. No expense has been spared in making a direct line from the Mingo bridge into Pittsburg. Hills were tunneled or cut away, expensive bridges and fills were made to keep the direct route and to avoid heavy grades. Justice Carman saw the new track laying machine, used in this section for the first time. It is a wonderful machine, capable of making from three to four miles of track per day, 50 men with the machine doing the work of several hundred. The first passenger train is to run over the road on June 19 and the occasion will be marked with great ceremony all along the line.

FIRST AID TO THE FATIGUE

Home at The Inside Inn Inside the Fair Grounds Insures Pleasant Visit to the World's Fair.

NO EXTORTION HERE — RATES ARE FIXED BY AUTHORITIES.

So much is there to be seen at the World's Fair that one might start at the beginning, eat and sleep on the way and still not see everything were a month's time consumed in the tour of Exposition streets and aisles.

Frail humanity would not be equal to such a task, but there has been a way provided by which the visitor may see the Exposition in its fullness and to the best advantage with as little loss of time and energy as possible.

The Inside Inn is situated on the Exposition grounds, where the visitor who wishes to spend his time profitably may secure accommodations that will enable him to arise with the awakening of the Exposition, just outside his windows, and begin a tour of inspection that can continue until long after the mantle of night spreads over the spectacle. Then a refuge will be afforded him right at hand.

No struggling with the crowds, waiting for street cars or pushing a way to the ticket booths for guests of the Inside Inn. All of these discomforts have been saved him by an arrangement with the Exposition by which he may stay inside the grounds as long as he is a guest at the hotel. He will have not only the comforts of the spacious hotel, on one of the coolest and mst beautiful spots of the coolest and most beautiful spots of the parlors, reception rooms, offices and verandas, where he may rest at intervals during the day and mingle with agreeable company.

The Inside Inn is on the Intramural railway, which penetrates every part of the grounds, and it is near the Plateau of States, overlooking the main picture of the Fair. It is reached from Union Station by three car lines. The Inside Inn has 500 rooms at $1.50 per person; 500 at $2 and 500 at $2.50. The total number of rooms is 2,257.

Came to Blows.

Dispute over a job of plastering between Contractor Robert Hailes and Ben Longfellow led to a personal encounter at the corner of Fifth and Market streets Saturday afternoon. Both men are well known residents of the East End and the affair created no little sensation. It is alleged that Longfellow lost his temper in the course of the argument and knocked Hailes down with a blow in the face. Longfellow appeared before the mayor later and plead guilty to assault and battery. He was fined $5 and costs.

A Popular Clerk.

Edward Buckley, who resigned his position a short time ago at the Thompson grocery down town, has taken a position at the Bradmon establishment on Pennsylvania avenue. He is a popular young man and thoroughly experienced in the business. O. C. Chevalier, a former employe at Bradmon's, and later a motorman on the East Liverpool line, has taken Buckley's old position.

Birthday Party.

Miss Anna Phillips, of St. George street, entertained her young friends Saturday afternoon at a birthday party, it being her ninth birthday anniversary. The table was beautifully decorated with white carnations, pink roses and white lilies.

Postmaster's Report.

Postmaster Will Baird has completed his report for the month of April, showing stamp sales to the amount of $261.65 and a money order business aggregating $1,900.

Call Extended.

A unanimous call has been extended to Rev. F. M. Pitman by the congregation of the Second Christian church to remain as pastor for another year and it is probable that he will accept. Rev. Mr. Pitman has been in charge of the congregation for some time and is very popular. He is now a student at Bethany college and is a young man of great promise in the ministry.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Miss Pearl Lloyd, of Allegheny, is the guest of her parents, Rev. Dr. S. F. Lloyd and wife.

Thomas Wolf, of Belpre, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. George Huff, of Erie street.

Miss Stella Burson, of Waynesburg, visited Miss Janet Hill, of Ohio avenue, last week.

Rev. N. M. Crowe went to Pittsburg this morning on a brief business trip.

The enrollment at the Second Presbyterian church yesterday showed 213 present, a record breaking attendance.

The meeting of the Young People's Society of the Second United Presbyterian church has been postponed from Tuesday until Wednesday night on account of the concert at the First Presbyterian church.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the Second United Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the church. Mrs. Charles Hanley, Sr., will lead the meeting.

Rev. W. E. Hill, of Ohio avenue, for several weeks has been supplying the pulpit of the Second Presbyterian church of Wellsville. According to a Cleveland paper Rev. Mr. Hill recently preached for Rev. Dr. Gaston, pastor of the North Presbyterian church in that city.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre, of Shepherdtown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for croup, whooping cough, grip, pneumonia and consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed by Will Reed, Charles T. Larkins, C. G. Anderson and J. D. Holloway, druggists. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes, 50c and $1.

JUSTICE CARMAN HOME WITH HEALTH RESTORED

Visited Old Home and Saw Great Track Laying Machine on New Wabash Line.

Justice L. W. Carman returned Saturday evening from a two weeks' business and pleasure visit in Washington county, Pa. He has entirely recovered from the effects of a serious attack of the grip from which he had been suffering for several weeks. Justice Carman is one of the owners of some valuable farming and mineral lands in Washington county, the value of which has been enhanced by the new line of the Wabash railroad from Jewett to Pittsburg. The new road passes within a few hundred yards of the farm and it is probable that the owners will sell the coal rights in a short time.

Justice Carman saw the men at work in building what is supposed to be the most expensive piece of track in the United States. No expense has been spared in making a direct line from the Mingo bridge into Pittsburg. Hills were tunneled or cut away, expensive bridges and fills were made to keep the direct route and to avoid heavy grades. Justice Carman saw the new track laying machine, used in this section for the first time. It is a wonderful machine, capable of making from three to four miles of track per day, 50 men with the machine doing the work of several hundred. The first passenger train is to run over the road on June 19 and the occasion will be marked with great ceremony all along the line.

So much is there to be seen at the World's Fair that one might start at the beginning, eat and sleep on the way and still not see everything were a month's time consumed in the tour of Exposition streets and aisles.

Frail humanity would not be equal to such a task, but there has been a way provided by which the visitor may see the Exposition in its fullness and to the best advantage with as little loss of time and energy as possible.

The Inside Inn is situated on the Exposition grounds, where the visitor who wishes to spend his time profitably may secure accommodations that will enable him to arise with the awakening of the Exposition, just outside his windows, and begin a tour of inspection that can continue until long after the mantle of night spreads over the spectacle. Then a refuge will be afforded him right at hand.

No struggling with the crowds, waiting for street cars or pushing a way to the ticket booths for guests of the Inside Inn. All of these discomforts have been saved him by an arrangement with the Exposition by which he may stay inside the grounds as long as he is a guest at the hotel. He will have not only the comforts of the spacious hotel, on one of the coolest and mst beautiful spots of the coolest and most beautiful spots of the parlors, reception rooms, offices and verandas, where he may rest at intervals during the day and mingle with agreeable company.

It is reached from Union Station by three car lines. The Inside Inn has 500 rooms at $1.50 per person; 500 at $2 and 500 at $2.50. The total number of rooms is 2,257.

At last a battle worthy of the name has been fought between the Russians and the Japs. It was a land engagement, and contrary to expectations and predictions, the Japs showed conspicuous skill and gallantry, overcoming superior numbers and winning an important victory. This fierce engagement makes it plain that, though the Russians have undoubted superiority in the art of boasting, they are going to have a hard task to outclass the Yankees of the Orient when it comes to actual fighting.

"So far as the Democratic plan of campaign has developed," remarks a contemporary, "it consists of nothing but a fierce attack upon President Roosevelt and the administration." The Democracy could scarcely adopt tactics more satisfactory to the Republicans. The latter know Roosevelt and his record and take the greatest pride in both. They will bitterly resent cowardly and unwarranted attacks on either.

The Home Gardening association has put in the hands of the school children of Cleveland nearly half a ton of flower seeds. Every package has directions for planting and cultivating the flowers. The Cleveland Leader aptly describes this benevolence as "civic enterprise of the finest kind," calculated to do a vast amount of good.

A Smithsonian institution scientist asserts that fish can talk. That accounts for the poor luck East Liverpool Waltons have in home waters. Somebody has given the finny creatures a friendly tip as to the peril lying in store for them.

Those who maintain that American oratory is on the decline might perhaps change their opinion if they would go to the trouble of reading the Congressional Record. Certainly there is quantity there ad libitum.

A Philadelphia newspaper asserts that Carnegie is an infidel. Possibly so, but he spends his money with a freedom that would put many an avowed Christian to the blush.

A Boston doctor says he has learned how to change the color of the human eye. If he were a police court habitue he would know that his discovery is nothing new.

May day strikes are few in number this year, which is a good deal to be thankful for.

A Philadelphia doctor, it is said, has successfully mended a broken heart. Dame Nature often does that kind of a job in time that would make a Philadelphian's head swim.

The merry month of May will do well not to repeat April's performance if she expects to retain any of her old-time popularity.

Six years ago yesterday George Dewey did a full day's work Sunday morning before breakfast.

Only the natural gas companies are likely to regret the arrival of sunshine.

It is high time the street cleaning problem were solved.

"Only the Best"

A CRAZY MAN

Found Eating an Egg, Shell and All.

Rational people thought it was awful, as the shell had no food value, and was, of course, indigestible and injurious.

It is just as crazy for rational people to swallow a lot of cod liver oil, to get the medicinal curatives from it, as it was for the crazy man to eat the egg, shell and all.

Modern science has proved that the oil, or greasy part of cod liver oil, has no value whatever, and only upsets the stomach and retards recovery. It is the medicinal elements which are enveloped in the cod liver oil, of which there are about fifty, that represent all the tonic and curative power of the famous old remedy.

A preparation containing all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but entirely free from oil or grease, must, therefore, be the very best tonic reconstructor possible. Such is Vinol. It positively does contain every one of the fifty odd medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, fresh and sweet, just as the egg shell contains the nutritious food, and we throw away the useless, indigestible oil, just as you throw away the egg shell.

Knowing its wonderful medicinal and curative power, we guarantee to restore health and strength to the following or refund their money without question:

Run down, debilitated, tired, overworked people, old people, weak women, nursing mothers, puny, ailing children, convalescents, or to people suffering with hard colds, hacking coughs, incipient consumption and bronchitis. Vinol never fails to make rich, red blood and give strength to the weak and health to the sick. Try it on our guarantee. If it doesn't do you any good it won't cost you a cent. Charles T. Larkins, druggist.

SOUTH SIDE

NATURAL GAS FOR HOME CONSUMPTION

Strike at Stewart Well Starts a Movement to Secure a Further Supply.

The excellent results obtained from the drilling of a gas well on the John D. Stewart lot on Carolina avenue has caused a revival of interest in the business, and at present more than a dozen wells are contemplated in the neighborhood.

A test has been made of the pressure at the Stewart mill, and was most gratifying to the owners. The gauge showed a pressure of 50 pounds, which is better than any well now producing gas anywhere near Chester. An attempt was made this morning to borrow a meter such as is ued by the gas companies, but none could be found. It is thought a flow of 50 pounds will produce 100,000 feet a day. The supply will be piped and distributed among the residents in the vicinity, who will much prefer to pay the same rate as is charged by the gas company and get the pure fluid without the air.

A deal is under way whereby the Stewart Bros. will drill a well on the Lawrence Baxter lot on Adolphus street. Mr. Baxter will have an interest in the business, and if the deal goes through drilling will be commenced at once. In case gas is obtained in anything like the quantity now flowing at the Stewart well the investment will be a good one. There are 14 houses on Adolphus street, the owners of which have agreed to take the service, and though there is some risk connected with the venture it is well worth a trial.

FAST AUTOS

Considered a Menace and Chester Will Try to Regulate the Speed.

The people of Chester who reside along the level paved streets have been annoyed ever since the good weather began by automobile owners from East Liverpool who come to Chester for the apparent purpose of "speeding." The residents were loath to make complaint, but the authorities themselves have taken the matter in hand, and it is likely some arrests will be made. Yesterday no less than five machines were in Chester, and it is said they made it positively dangerous for pedestrians. Mayor Mercer and his officers were out, but were unable to get within hailing distance of the chauffeurs.

The mayor says if the automobile enthusiasts desire to come to Chester they must regulate the speed or suffer the consequences.

A Fighting Foreigner Fined.

Chief Winn and his men have been annoyed by the actions of a number of Italians residing near Fourth street. The men seem to be of a quarrelsome nature and numerous fights have occurred there within the last few days. It was decided to make an example of some of the party, and yesterday Joe Bussi was arrested as the ringleader of the gang. A wicked looking razor was found on him and a charge of carrying concealed weapons was preferred. He pleaded guilty and Mayor Mercer fined the foreigner $10 and costs, which he paid.

Funeral of Miss Hewitt.

A number of Chester relatives are in attendance today at the funeral of Miss Mabel Hewitt, who died at her home near Arroyo Saturday night. Councilman Joseph Hobbs, Robert Hobbs and several others left to attend the services at Nessley chapel this afternoon. Rev. William Curfman, pastor of the church, will officiate, and the remain will be laid to rest in the cemetery at Nessley. Miss Alice Hewitt, the younger sister of the deal girl, is at death's door, suffering from typhoid fever.

Foot Badly Crushed.

Edward Hadley, residing a few miles southeast of Chester, received word Saturday that an accident had befallen his son George, who is employed as a warehouseman at the Barberton pottery. The young man's foot was caught in an elevator and so badly smashed that it is feared the foot will have to come off. He is in a hospital. It will be several months before he can walk.

CHESTER NOTES.

Carl Evans, of Ambridge, was a Chester visitor over Sunday.

Ed Kelly, a traveling salesman whose home is at New Cumberland, was in Chester on business today.

Mrs. George Stewart and daughter, Miss Maude, of New Cumberland, were visiting friends at Chester today.

"Only the Best"

A CRAZY MAN

Found Eating an Egg, Shell and All.

Rational people thought it was awful, as the shell had no food value, and was, of course, indigestible and injurious.

It is just as crazy for rational people to swallow a lot of cod liver oil, to get the medicinal curatives from it, as it was for the crazy man to eat the egg, shell and all.

Modern science has proved that the oil, or greasy part of cod liver oil, has no value whatever, and only upsets the stomach and retards recovery. It is the medicinal elements which are enveloped in the cod liver oil, of which there are about fifty, that represent all the tonic and curative power of the famous old remedy.

A preparation containing all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but entirely free from oil or grease, must, therefore, be the very best tonic reconstructor possible. Such is Vinol. It positively does contain every one of the fifty odd medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, fresh and sweet, just as the egg shell contains the nutritious food, and we throw away the useless, indigestible oil, just as you throw away the egg shell.

Knowing its wonderful medicinal and curative power, we guarantee to restore health and strength to the following or refund their money without question:

Run down, debilitated, tired, overworked people, old people, weak women, nursing mothers, puny, ailing children, convalescents, or to people suffering with hard colds, hacking coughs, incipient consumption and bronchitis. Vinol never fails to make rich, red blood and give strength to the weak and health to the sick. Try it on our guarantee. If it doesn't do you any good it won't cost you a cent. Charles T. Larkins, druggist.

NATURAL GAS FOR HOME CONSUMPTION

Strike at Stewart Well Starts a Movement to Secure a Further Supply.

The excellent results obtained from the drilling of a gas well on the John D. Stewart lot on Carolina avenue has caused a revival of interest in the business, and at present more than a dozen wells are contemplated in the neighborhood.

A test has been made of the pressure at the Stewart mill, and was most gratifying to the owners. The gauge showed a pressure of 50 pounds, which is better than any well now producing gas anywhere near Chester. An attempt was made this morning to borrow a meter such as is ued by the gas companies, but none could be found. It is thought a flow of 50 pounds will produce 100,000 feet a day. The supply will be piped and distributed among the residents in the vicinity, who will much prefer to pay the same rate as is charged by the gas company and get the pure fluid without the air.

A deal is under way whereby the Stewart Bros. will drill a well on the Lawrence Baxter lot on Adolphus street. Mr. Baxter will have an interest in the business, and if the deal goes through drilling will be commenced at once. In case gas is obtained in anything like the quantity now flowing at the Stewart well the investment will be a good one. There are 14 houses on Adolphus street, the owners of which have agreed to take the service, and though there is some risk connected with the venture it is well worth a trial.

FAST AUTOS

The people of Chester who reside along the level paved streets have been annoyed ever since the good weather began by automobile owners from East Liverpool who come to Chester for the apparent purpose of "speeding." The residents were loath to make complaint, but the authorities themselves have taken the matter in hand, and it is likely some arrests will be made. Yesterday no less than five machines were in Chester, and it is said they made it positively dangerous for pedestrians. Mayor Mercer and his officers were out, but were unable to get within hailing distance of the chauffeurs.

The mayor says if the automobile enthusiasts desire to come to Chester they must regulate the speed or suffer the consequences.

A Fighting Foreigner Fined.

Chief Winn and his men have been annoyed by the actions of a number of Italians residing near Fourth street. The men seem to be of a quarrelsome nature and numerous fights have occurred there within the last few days. It was decided to make an example of some of the party, and yesterday Joe Bussi was arrested as the ringleader of the gang. A wicked looking razor was found on him and a charge of carrying concealed weapons was preferred. He pleaded guilty and Mayor Mercer fined the foreigner $10 and costs, which he paid.

Funeral of Miss Hewitt.

A number of Chester relatives are in attendance today at the funeral of Miss Mabel Hewitt, who died at her home near Arroyo Saturday night. Councilman Joseph Hobbs, Robert Hobbs and several others left to attend the services at Nessley chapel this afternoon. Rev. William Curfman, pastor of the church, will officiate, and the remain will be laid to rest in the cemetery at Nessley. Miss Alice Hewitt, the younger sister of the deal girl, is at death's door, suffering from typhoid fever.

Foot Badly Crushed.

Edward Hadley, residing a few miles southeast of Chester, received word Saturday that an accident had befallen his son George, who is employed as a warehouseman at the Barberton pottery. The young man's foot was caught in an elevator and so badly smashed that it is feared the foot will have to come off. He is in a hospital. It will be several months before he can walk.

Harris, for several years located in Wellsville, and more recently assistant chief engineer of the maintenance of way department of the Cleveland & Pittsburg road, has been promoted to chief of that department of the Marietta division of the road, which was formerly the Cleveland & Marietta road. He left for his new post several days ago and he will move his family there within a fortnight.

Mr. Harris is quite a young man and since he came to Wellsville has made a host of friends. He is not only popular with the officials and other railroad employes, but with all with whom he came in contact. HAS FIVE ORDINANCES

Mayor Fogo Has Bunch of City Documents Awaiting His Signature Before They Are Laws.

It has been some months since so many ordinances were awaiting the signature of Mayor W. L. Fogo in order that they may become a law. There are no less than five now waiting to be signed. The most important of these are the ordinance abolishing wine rooms and the ordinance vacating certain streets in the West End.

The wine room ordinance was passed 10 days ago, and it has not been signed yet. It is contended that this ordinance is now a law as soon as it is published. The vacating ordinance, relative to certain West End streets, has not yet been signed, but there is not much danger of it being vetoed. There are also ordinances granting C. V. Shoub the right to build a switch, establishing a grade on Steubenville street, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth street, awaiting the signature of the mayor.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children, for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. Sold by Alvin H Bulger.

Successful Operation—A successful operation was performed on Miss Anna Earich yesterday at the Taylor hospital by Dr. W. J. Taylor. Miss Earich is doing well and will be about again in a few days.

Hay Fever Unknown.

Certain it is, and many years of careful experience are back of the statement, that hay fever, and kindred annoying and troublesome summer affections distressing to so many thousands all over the country, recurring as regularly as July and August, are absolutely unknown in the "Highlands of Ontario." Thousands of people go to Muskoka, Georgian Bay or the Lake of Bays every year for nothing else but to avoid hay fever, and find perfect immunity from the ailment, and many by going there regularly for a period of a few years are said to be permanently cured.

HAS FIVE ORDINANCES

Mayor Fogo Has Bunch of City Documents Awaiting His Signature Before They Are Laws.

It has been some months since so many ordinances were awaiting the signature of Mayor W. L. Fogo in order that they may become a law. There are no less than five now waiting to be signed. The most important of these are the ordinance abolishing wine rooms and the ordinance vacating certain streets in the West End.

The wine room ordinance was passed 10 days ago, and it has not been signed yet. It is contended that this ordinance is now a law as soon as it is published. The vacating ordinance, relative to certain West End streets, has not yet been signed, but there is not much danger of it being vetoed. There are also ordinances granting C. V. Shoub the right to build a switch, establishing a grade on Steubenville street, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth street, awaiting the signature of the mayor.

The news of her death was a shock to her many friends, both fellow scholars and friends in Wellsville. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hewitt, and one sister, Miss Alice.

LOCALS ARE READY FOR OPENING GAME

Faulk, the Pitcher, Is in Town, And Has Signed for the Season. Other News.

The management of the local base ball team will have everything ready for the opening game on Friday with Leetsdale. The new uniforms have arrived and are real swell. The members of the team will be given their suits today, but will not likely practice in them.

Captain Reark announces that Crum, who was to pitch for the locals, will not be here, having decided to go to California.

Dwight Faulk, the new twirler of Negley, was in the city yesterday and will move here some time this week. He is said to be first-class and will strengthen the bunch of twirlers considerably.

The committee chosen by the management to raffle off the diamond ring before the game opens Friday has decided upon a plan and that it will be done with fairness goes without saying.

Father Smyth Preached.

Rev. Father T. M. Smyth, who has been spending several months at Hot Springs, Ark., for the benefit of his health, returned home Friday. His health is somewhat improved and yesterday he conducted the services at St. Aloysius' church.

A Timely Suggestion.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children, for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. Sold by Alvin H Bulger.

Hay Fever Unknown.

Certain it is, and many years of careful experience are back of the statement, that hay fever, and kindred annoying and troublesome summer affections distressing to so many thousands all over the country, recurring as regularly as July and August, are absolutely unknown in the "Highlands of Ontario." Thousands of people go to Muskoka, Georgian Bay or the Lake of Bays every year for nothing else but to avoid hay fever, and find perfect immunity from the ailment, and many by going there regularly for a period of a few years are said to be permanently cured.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY GETS NEW BOOK

Works That Will Be of Interest to Many Recently Placed Upon the Shelves.

Quite a number of new books have been received at Carnegie public library. Among them are the following. "Log of a Cowboy?" Adams; "Love Affairs of An Old Maid," Bell; "Social Unrest," Brooks; "Ancient and Modern Engineering," Burr; "Black Wolf's Breed," Dickson; "Concerning Isabel Carnaby," Fowler; "Master of Craft," "Odd Craft," Jacobs; "Land of Heather," Johnson; "Toward the Rising Sun," Krausz; "Well After All," Moore; "Red Headed Gill," Owen; "Electrical Engineering," Rosenberg; "Money and Banking," Scott; "Guert Ten Eyck," Stoddard; "Harold Dis-aissions," Troeger; "Tom Sawyer Abroad," Twain.

There have also been liberal donations made at the library recently. Books were donated by the following: Miss Martha Callebe, six volumes; William Earp, four volumes, Andrew Carnegie, one volume. One book of unusual interest has been donated. It is "The Book of Mormon," an account written by the hand of Mormon upon plates taken from the plates of Nephi and was translated by Joseph Smith. It will be used only as a reference book, and will interest quite a number of people who are interested in the Mormon question, which is being much discussed.

There have been 17 new photograph pictures received at the library which will be added to the photograph exhibit which is being held. The pictures are fine, and are the work of Mr. Phillips, Mr. Gotham and Mr. Harrington. They were taken from scenes in New England, Europe, Atlantic City and some in this immediate locality. Of the hundreds of people who have seen the exhibit, including many out-of town people, everyone has expressed it as being a display of photography of which East Liverpool has a right to be proud.

Announcement has been made in accordance with the rule which has been followed out since the opening of the library that from the first of May until the first of November the library will not be open on Sunday afternoons.

The people of the city have availed themselves of the opportunity of reading on Sunday afternoons and during the winter months the reading rooms have been well filled. But during the summer months the reading rooms will not be open on Sundasy.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test, resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes: "A patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles, so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation and kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at Will Reed's, C. T. Larkins', C. G. Anderson's and J. D. Holloway's.

A small bottle of Scott's Emulsion costing fifty cents will last a baby a month—a few drops in its bottle each time it is fed. That's a small outlay for so large a return of health and comfort.

Babies that are given Scott's Emulsion quickly respond to its helpful action. It seems to contain just the elements of nourishment a baby needs most.

We Paid $100,000

For Liquozone—Yet We Give You a 50c. Bottle Free.

This Company, after testing Liquozone for two years in the most difficult germ diseases, paid $100,000 for the American rights. That is by far the highest price ever paid for similar rights on any scientific discovery.
We publish this fact to show you the value of Liquozone. Men of our class don't pay a price like that save for a product of remarkable worth to humanity.

Kills Inside Germs.

The reason for that price is this: Liquozone alone can kill germs in the body without killing the tissues too. Nothing else in the world is so good for the human body; yet Liquozone is a germicide so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a germ that it cannot kill.
Liquozone destroys at once and forever the cause of any germ disease. And there is no other way to do it. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. Medicine is helpless in troubles of this kind.

Not Medicine.

Liquozone is not made by compounding drugs. Its virtues are derived solely from gas, made in large part from the best oxygen producers. By a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time, this gas is made part of the liquid product. Liquozone has, for more than 20 years, been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research.
The result is a product that does what oxygen does. Oxygen is the very source of all vitality, the most essential element of life. Liquozone is a vitalizing tonic with which no other known product can compare. Its effects are exhilarating and purifying. But germs are vegetables; and Liquozone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetable matter.
Liquozone goes wherever the blood goes, destroying every germ in the body. In this way it cures diseases which medicine never cures. It will do more for sick humanity than all the drugs in the world combined.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone kills the germs, wherever they are, and the results are inevitable. By destroying the cause of the trouble, it invariably ends the disease, and forever.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY GETS NEW BOOK

Quite a number of new books have been received at Carnegie public library. Among them are the following. "Log of a Cowboy?" Adams; "Love Affairs of An Old Maid," Bell; "Social Unrest," Brooks; "Ancient and Modern Engineering," Burr; "Black Wolf's Breed," Dickson; "Concerning Isabel Carnaby," Fowler; "Master of Craft," "Odd Craft," Jacobs; "Land of Heather," Johnson; "Toward the Rising Sun," Krausz; "Well After All," Moore; "Red Headed Gill," Owen; "Electrical Engineering," Rosenberg; "Money and Banking," Scott; "Guert Ten Eyck," Stoddard; "Harold Dissassions," Troeger; "Tom Sawyer Abroad," Twain.

There have also been liberal donations made at the library recently. Books were donated by the following: Miss Martha Callebe, six volumes; William Earp, four volumes, Andrew Carnegie, one volume. One book of unusual interest has been donated. It is "The Book of Mormon," an account written by the hand of Mormon upon plates taken from the plates of Nephi and was translated by Joseph Smith. It will be used only as a reference book, and will interest quite a number of people who are interested in the Mormon question, which is being much discussed.

There have been 17 new photograph pictures received at the library which will be added to the photograph exhibit which is being held. The pictures are fine, and are the work of Mr. Phillips, Mr. Gotham and Mr. Harrington. They were taken from scenes in New England, Europe, Atlantic City and some in this immediate locality. Of the hundreds of people who have seen the exhibit, including many out-of town people, everyone has expressed it as being a display of photography of which East Liverpool has a right to be proud.

Announcement has been made in accordance with the rule which has been followed out since the opening of the library that from the first of May until the first of November the library will not be open on Sunday afternoons.

The people of the city have availed themselves of the opportunity of reading on Sunday afternoons and during the winter months the reading rooms have been well filled. But during the summer months the reading rooms will not be open on Sundasy.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test, resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes: "A patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles, so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation and kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at Will Reed's, C. T. Larkins', C. G. Anderson's and J. D. Holloway's.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY GETS NEW BOOK

Quite a number of new books have been received at Carnegie public library. Among them are the following. "Log of a Cowboy?" Adams; "Love Affairs of An Old Maid," Bell; "Social Unrest," Brooks; "Ancient and Modern Engineering," Burr; "Black Wolf's Breed," Dickson; "Concerning Isabel Carnaby," Fowler; "Master of Craft," "Odd Craft," Jacobs; "Land of Heather," Johnson; "Toward the Rising Sun," Krausz; "Well After All," Moore; "Red Headed Gill," Owen; "Electrical Engineering," Rosenberg; "Money and Banking," Scott; "Guert Ten Eyck," Stoddard; "Harold Dis-aissions," Treeger; "Tom Sawyer Abroad," Twain.

There have also been liberal donations made at the library recently. Books were donated by the following: Miss Martha Callebe, six volumes; William Earp, four volumes, Andrew Carnegie, one volume. One book of unusual interest has been donated. It is "The Book of Mormon," an account written by the hand of Mormon upon plates taken from the plates of Nephi and was translated by Joseph Smith. It will be used only as a reference book, and will interest quite a number of people who are interested in the Mormon question, which is being much discussed.

There have been 17 new photograph pictures received at the library which will be added to the photograph exhibit which is being held. The pictures are fine, and are the work of Mr. Phillips, Mr. Gotham and Mr. Harrington. They were taken from scenes in New England, Europe, Atlantic City and some in this immediate locality. Of the hundreds of people who have seen the exhibit, including many out-of town people, everyone has expressed it as being a display of photography of which East Liverpool has a right to be proud.

Announcement has been made in accordance with the rule which has been followed out since the opening of the library that from the first of May until the first of November the library will not be open on Sunday afternoons.

The people of the city have availed themselves of the opportunity of reading on Sunday afternoons and during the winter months the reading rooms have been well filled. But during the summer months the reading rooms will not be open on Sundasy.

We Paid $100,000

For Liquozone—Yet We Give You a 50c. Bottle Free.

This Company, after testing Liquozone for two years in the most difficult germ diseases, paid $100,000 for the American rights. That is by far the highest price ever paid for similar rights on any scientific discovery.
We publish this fact to show you the value of Liquozone. Men of our class don't pay a price like that save for a product of remarkable worth to humanity.

Kills Inside Germs.

The reason for that price is this: Liquozone alone can kill germs in the body without killing the tissues too. Nothing else in the world is so good for the human body; yet Liquozone is a germicide so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a germ that it cannot kill.
Liquozone destroys at once and forever the cause of any germ disease. And there is no other way to do it. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. Medicine is helpless in troubles of this kind.

Not Medicine.

Liquozone is not made by compounding drugs. Its virtues are derived solely from gas, made in large part from the best oxygen producers. By a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time, this gas is made part of the liquid product. Liquozone has, for more than 20 years, been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research.
The result is a product that does what oxygen does. Oxygen is the very source of all vitality, the most essential element of life. Liquozone is a vitalizing tonic with which no other known product can compare. Its effects are exhilarating and purifying. But germs are vegetables; and Liquozone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetable matter.
Liquozone goes wherever the blood goes, destroying every germ in the body. In this way it cures diseases which medicine never cures. It will do more for sick humanity than all the drugs in the world combined.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone kills the germs, wherever they are, and the results are inevitable. By destroying the cause of the trouble, it invariably ends the disease, and forever.

Asthma, Abscess—Anemia, Bronchitis, Blood Poison, Bright's Disease, Bowel Troubles, Coughs—Colds, Consumption, Colic—Cramp, Constipation, Catarrh—Cancer, Dysentry—Diarrhea, Dandruff—Dropsy, Hay Fever—Influenza, Kidney Diseases, La Grippe, Leucorrhea, Liver Troubles, Malaria—Neuralgia, Many Heart Troubles, Piles—Pneumonia, Pleurisy—Quinsy, Rheumatism, Skin Diseases, Scrofula—Syphilis, Stomach Troubles, Throat Troubles, Tuberculosis, Tumors—Ulcers, Varicocele, Women's Diseases, Dyspepsia, Eczema—Erysipelas, Fevers—Gall Stones, Goitre—Gout, Gonorrhea—Gleet

All diseases that begin with fever—all inflammation—all catarrh—all contagious diseases—all the results of impure or poisonous blood.

50c. Bottle Free

If you need Liquozone, and have never tried it, please send us this coupon. We will then mail you an order on your local druggist for a full-size bottle, and we will pay your druggist ourselves for it. This is our free gift, made to convince you; to show you what Liquozone is, and what it can do. In justice to yourself, please accept it to-day, for it places you under no obligation whatever.
Liquozone costs 50c. and $1.

THE TRUE LOYALTY TO JESUS CHRIST

Christians' Duty Plainly Explained by Rev. Frederick M. McMillin.

WORTHY OF ALL IT COSTS

Is the Firm Adherence to the Christian Doctrine — Sermons and Services in Other Churches of the City Interesting Followers of the Master.

The large congregations present yesterday at the First Presbyterian church, both morning and evening, were delighted with the sermons delivered by Rev. Frederick N. McMillin, of Dayton, brother of the pastor, who was unable to conduct the services owing to illness. The visiting minister chose for his text in the morning the 67th verse of the sixth chapter of John, "Will ye also go away?" The verse suggested the subject of loyalty and Rev. Mr. McMillin, in an eloquent, forceful and logical manner, gave his interested hearers a sermon of great value. In part he said:

"The verse is taken from the chapter describing the scene when Jesus, before a multitude of people, told them that if they were to be children of God they must eat of the Son's flesh and drink of His blood. Among the crowd assembled was a host of Jews. They marveled at the seemingly strange words of Jesus and turned from Him. A number of others, known as hangers-on, also left, until Jesus was surrounded by His chosen disciples. It was then that He asked, 'Will ye also go away?' It was then the same as now, an almost irresistible desire that came over the disciples to join the crowd of deserters. But no, they possessed love and loyalty for Jesus and stayed with Him. The fidelity of those men has inspired loyalty to the world.

"Loyalty is a grand quality. A true man is loyal to his country, friends, wife and convictions. It is one of the noblest attributes of a human character. Loyalty attains to the greatest and noblest heights of God. The Christian life is not doctrine. It is not church membership that makes one loyal to God. It is not giving money, but how many times is this used to cover disloyalty? The Christian life is individual loyalty to Jesus Christ. It is not the disloyalty of the world that wounds the heart of Jesus. When Jesus looks down upon the scenes surrounding the Yalu river, where two nations are at bloody war, His heart must ache. When He ascended into heaven 2,000 years ago He certainly did not wish for such uprising between nations. But this is not His greatest burden. It must pain Him to note the corruption of the high offices in our own beautiful country and government. He surely is sorrowful over the disgrace brought on the United States senator who disgraced himself and the country. But this is not the greatest burden. It brings sorrow, but is not the greatest burden. The greatest burden is the disloyalty of His own.

"There is a chosen company today. You and I belong to it, as professed Christians of the Presbyterian church. Mark you, you stand today just where those disciples stood when Jesus asked them if they would also go away. Jesus has never deserted us. Where there is a high sense of honor, loyalty always begets loyalty and fidelity always begets fidelity. Is there any wonder that you and I are loyal to the American flag? Suppose one of us were to go to the very center of darkest Africa and were to be mistreated by the natives of that country. The nearest American consul would be applied to and he would protect us. He would resort to the grand old Stars and Stripes which are upheld by the great country of ours. Were it necessary, our rights would be defended by a whole army. Can we then not honor the flag? A man is loyal to his wife because she is loyal to him. God pity the man who expects his wife to be more loyal than he is.

"When Senator Hanna died the newspapers all over the land commented on his life. In some instances he was the subject of adverse criticism. He had faults, as every man has, but there was one feature of his life that stood far above all the others, and it was referred to many times. It was the wonderful power he had over his friends. He always held his friends. Why? Because he was loyal to a friend to the very last. Jesus, having loved His own, loved them to the bitter end. Did He cast you off when you stumbled in sin? Not at all. He is always making intercession for you. He has stood by us though we have been unworthy of it. He said He would never forsake us. When sorrow came, did He desert? No. How then can you, in face of all this, be disloyal to Jesus? It costs something to be loyal. A cheap gospel is preached too often from our pulpits. All the world clamors for a heroic gospel. To be loyal it costs a lot—self-denial, money, time, effort, the best we have, but is it not worth all the cost? Paraphrase the scriptural verse, 'What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?' and make it read, 'What shall it cost a man if he lose the whole world and gain his own soul?' Disloyalty costs us peace of conscience, power and eternal life. It will cost us everything, even the salvation of our souls. Had we better be loyal or disloyal?"

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Interesting and Forceful Sermons By Pastor Bawden, Morning and Evening.

The services at the First Baptist church yesterday were very interesting, both morning and evening. The anthems as rendered by the choir were especially well done. Pastor H. H. Bawden's text in the morning was 2 Cor. 5:14-15, "The Constraining Love of Christ." He first showed what this constraint is—a holding in, or holding together, as Paul was held to the thought of laboring for the glory of God and the salvation of men. The love of Christ which thus constrains, is not our love to Christ, but Christ's love to a lost and ruined world, which led Him to give Himself for us. The reason of this constraint was a consideration of the substitutionary death of Christ, "One died for all," and the union with Christ of those who have by faith committed themselves to Him—"therefore all died," which leads to a new life, a living not for themselves, but to Him who died for them and rose again. The sermon was followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper to a goodly number.

The sermon in the evening was on David, a young man who had learned to trust in God, and obey Him. The story of his life was in part considered, illustrating his trust and obedience, which especially appeared when brought into contrast with the persistent self will, which finally led to open rebellion on the part of Saul. His youth on the hillsides of Bethlehem, caring for his father's sheep, playing the harp, learning to sling, and so unconsciously preparing to slay the Philistine giant, meditating on the works of God and feeding the poetic soul which wrote those psalms which have been the expression of the Christian experience of all the ages since, then the way he was brought to Saul, and how he was led to fight and slay Goliath, were considered, how in all these experiences his trust in God showed itself. Pastor Bawden was unable to finish the subject, and expects to return to it next Sunday, by following the farther history of David's life and work.

Wallenberg was a son-in-law of Sheffield. His wife had deserted him and returned to her father's house. This, it is thought, led to the tragedy. Wallenberg first shot his wife and then the other members of the family, one of the victims being a girl about 5 years old.

MALARIA

Germ Infected Air.

Malaria is not confined exclusively to the swamps and marshy regions of the country, but wherever there is bad air this insidious foe to health is found. Poisonous vapors and gases from sewers, and the musty air of damp cellars are laden with the germs of this miserable disease, which are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood and transmitted to every part of the body. Then you begin to feel out of sorts without ever suspecting the cause. No energy or appetite, dull headaches, sleepy and tired and completely fagged out from the slightest exertion, are some of the deplorable effects of this enfeebling malady. As the disease progresses and the blood becomes more deeply poisoned, boils and abscesses and dark or yellow spots appear upon the skin. When the poison is left to ferment and the microbes and germs to multiply in the blood, Liver and Kidney troubles and other serious complications often arise. As Malaria begins and develops in the blood, the treatment to be effective must begin there too. S. S. S. destroys the germs and poisons and purifies the polluted blood, and under its tonic effect the debilitated constitution rapidly recuperates and the system is soon clear of all signs of this depressing disease.

THE TRUE LOYALTY TO JESUS CHRIST

Christians' Duty Plainly Explained by Rev. Frederick M. McMillin.

WORTHY OF ALL IT COSTS

Is the Firm Adherence to the Christian Doctrine — Sermons and Services in Other Churches of the City Interesting Followers of the Master.

The large congregations present yesterday at the First Presbyterian church, both morning and evening, were delighted with the sermons delivered by Rev. Frederick N. McMillin, of Dayton, brother of the pastor, who was unable to conduct the services owing to illness. The visiting minister chose for his text in the morning the 67th verse of the sixth chapter of John, "Will ye also go away?" The verse suggested the subject of loyalty and Rev. Mr. McMillin, in an eloquent, forceful and logical manner, gave his interested hearers a sermon of great value. In part he said:

"The verse is taken from the chapter describing the scene when Jesus, before a multitude of people, told them that if they were to be children of God they must eat of the Son's flesh and drink of His blood. Among the crowd assembled was a host of Jews. They marveled at the seemingly strange words of Jesus and turned from Him. A number of others, known as hangers-on, also left, until Jesus was surrounded by His chosen disciples. It was then that He asked, 'Will ye also go away?' It was then the same as now, an almost irresistible desire that came over the disciples to join the crowd of deserters. But no, they possessed love and loyalty for Jesus and stayed with Him. The fidelity of those men has inspired loyalty to the world.

"Loyalty is a grand quality. A true man is loyal to his country, friends, wife and convictions. It is one of the noblest attributes of a human character. Loyalty attains to the greatest and noblest heights of God. The Christian life is not doctrine. It is not church membership that makes one loyal to God. It is not giving money, but how many times is this used to cover disloyalty? The Christian life is individual loyalty to Jesus Christ. It is not the disloyalty of the world that wounds the heart of Jesus. When Jesus looks down upon the scenes surrounding the Yalu river, where two nations are at bloody war, His heart must ache. When He ascended into heaven 2,000 years ago He certainly did not wish for such uprising between nations. But this is not His greatest burden. It must pain Him to note the corruption of the high offices in our own beautiful country and government. He surely is sorrowful over the disgrace brought on the United States senator who disgraced himself and the country. But this is not the greatest burden. It brings sorrow, but is not the greatest burden. The greatest burden is the disloyalty of His own.

"There is a chosen company today. You and I belong to it, as professed Christians of the Presbyterian church. Mark you, you stand today just where those disciples stood when Jesus asked them if they would also go away. Jesus has never deserted us. Where there is a high sense of honor, loyalty always begets loyalty and fidelity always begets fidelity. Is there any wonder that you and I are loyal to the American flag? Suppose one of us were to go to the very center of darkest Africa and were to be mistreated by the natives of that country. The nearest American consul would be applied to and he would protect us. He would resort to the grand old Stars and Stripes which are upheld by the great country of ours. Were it necessary, our rights would be defended by a whole army. Can we then not honor the flag? A man is loyal to his wife because she is loyal to him. God pity the man who expects his wife to be more loyal than he is.

"When Senator Hanna died the newspapers all over the land commented on his life. In some instances he was the subject of adverse criticism. He had faults, as every man has, but there was one feature of his life that stood far above all the others, and it was referred to many times. It was the wonderful power he had over his friends. He always held his friends. Why? Because he was loyal to a friend to the very last. Jesus, having loved His own, loved them to the bitter end. Did He cast you off when you stumbled in sin? Not at all. He is always making intercession for you. He has stood by us though we have been unworthy of it. He said He would never forsake us. When sorrow came, did He desert? No. How then can you, in face of all this, be disloyal to Jesus? It costs something to be loyal. A cheap gospel is preached too often from our pulpits. All the world clamors for a heroic gospel. To be loyal it costs a lot—self-denial, money, time, effort, the best we have, but is it not worth all the cost? Paraphrase the scriptural verse, 'What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?' and make it read, 'What shall it cost a man if he lose the whole world and gain his own soul?' Disloyalty costs us peace of conscience, power and eternal life. It will cost us everything, even the salvation of our souls. Had we better be loyal or disloyal?"

Interesting and Forceful Sermons By Pastor Bawden, Morning and Evening.

The services at the First Baptist church yesterday were very interesting, both morning and evening. The anthems as rendered by the choir were especially well done. Pastor H. H. Bawden's text in the morning was 2 Cor. 5:14-15, "The Constraining Love of Christ." He first showed what this constraint is—a holding in, or holding together, as Paul was held to the thought of laboring for the glory of God and the salvation of men. The love of Christ which thus constrains, is not our love to Christ, but Christ's love to a lost and ruined world, which led Him to give Himself for us. The story of his life was in part considered, illustrating his trust and obedience, which especially appeared when brought into contrast with the persistent self will, which finally led to open rebellion on the part of Saul. MALARIA

Germ Infected Air.

Malaria is not confined exclusively to the swamps and marshy regions of the country, but wherever there is bad air this insidious foe to health is found. Poisonous vapors and gases from sewers, and the musty air of damp cellars are laden with the germs of this miserable disease, which are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood and transmitted to every part of the body. Then you begin to feel out of sorts without ever suspecting the cause. No energy or appetite, dull headaches, sleepy and tired and completely fagged out from the slightest exertion, are some of the deplorable effects of this enfeebling malady. As the disease progresses and the blood becomes more deeply poisoned, boils and abscesses and dark or yellow spots appear upon the skin. When the poison is left to ferment and the microbes and germs to multiply in the blood, Liver and Kidney troubles and other serious complications often arise. As Malaria begins and develops in the blood, the treatment to be effective must begin there too. S. S. S. destroys the germs and poisons and purifies the polluted blood, and under its tonic effect the debilitated constitution rapidly recuperates and the system is soon clear of all signs of this depressing disease.

THE TRUE LOYALTY TO JESUS CHRIST

Christians' Duty Plainly Explained by Rev. Frederick M. McMillin.

WORTHY OF ALL IT COSTS

Is the Firm Adherence to the Christian Doctrine — Sermons and Services in Other Churches of the City Interesting Followers of the Master.

The large congregations present yesterday at the First Presbyterian church, both morning and evening, were delighted with the sermons delivered by Rev. Frederick N. McMillin, of Dayton, brother of the pastor, who was unable to conduct the services owing to illness. The visiting minister chose for his text in the morning the 67th verse of the sixth chapter of John, "Will ye also go away?" The verse suggested the subject of loyalty and Rev. Mr. McMillin, in an eloquent, forceful and logical manner, gave his interested hearers a sermon of great value. In part he said:

"The verse is taken from the chapter describing the scene when Jesus, before a multitude of people, told them that if they were to be children of God they must eat of the Son's flesh and drink of His blood. Among the crowd assembled was a host of Jews. They marveled at the seemingly strange words of Jesus and turned from Him. A number of others, known as hangers-on, also left, until Jesus was surrounded by His chosen disciples. It was then that He asked, 'Will ye also go away?' It was then the same as now, an almost irresistible desire that came over the disciples to join the crowd of deserters. But no, they possessed love and loyalty for Jesus and stayed with Him. The fidelity of those men has inspired loyalty to the world.

"Loyalty is a grand quality. A true man is loyal to his country, friends, wife and convictions. It is one of the noblest attributes of a human character. Loyalty attains to the greatest and noblest heights of God. The Christian life is not doctrine. It is not church membership that makes one loyal to God. It is not giving money, but how many times is this used to cover disloyalty? The Christian life is individual loyalty to Jesus Christ. It is not the disloyalty of the world that wounds the heart of Jesus. When Jesus looks down upon the scenes surrounding the Yalu river, where two nations are at bloody war, His heart must ache. When He ascended into heaven 2,000 years ago He certainly did not wish for such uprising between nations. But this is not His greatest burden. It must pain Him to note the corruption of the high offices in our own beautiful country and government. He surely is sorrowful over the disgrace brought on the United States senator who disgraced himself and the country. But this is not the greatest burden. It brings sorrow, but is not the greatest burden. The greatest burden is the disloyalty of His own.

"There is a chosen company today. You and I belong to it, as professed Christians of the Presbyterian church. Mark you, you stand today just where those disciples stood when Jesus asked them if they would also go away. Jesus has never deserted us. Where there is a high sense of honor, loyalty always begets loyalty and fidelity always begets fidelity. Is there any wonder that you and I are loyal to the American flag? Suppose one of us were to go to the very center of darkest Africa and were to be mistreated by the natives of that country. The nearest American consul would be applied to and he would protect us. He would resort to the grand old Stars and Stripes which are upheld by the great country of ours. Were it necessary, our rights would be defended by a whole army. Can we then not honor the flag? A man is loyal to his wife because she is loyal to him. God pity the man who expects his wife to be more loyal than he is.

"When Senator Hanna died the newspapers all over the land commented on his life. In some instances he was the subject of adverse criticism. He had faults, as every man has, but there was one feature of his life that stood far above all the others, and it was referred to many times. It was the wonderful power he had over his friends. He always held his friends. Why? Because he was loyal to a friend to the very last. Jesus, having loved His own, loved them to the bitter end. Did He cast you off when you stumbled in sin? Not at all. He is always making intercession for you. He has stood by us though we have been unworthy of it. He said He would never forsake us. When sorrow came, did He desert? No. How then can you, in face of all this, be disloyal to Jesus? It costs something to be loyal. A cheap gospel is preached too often from our pulpits. All the world clamors for a heroic gospel. To be loyal it costs a lot—self-denial, money, time, effort, the best we have, but is it not worth all the cost? Paraphrase the scriptural verse, 'What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?' and make it read, 'What shall it cost a man if he lose the whole world and gain his own soul?' Disloyalty costs us peace of conscience, power and eternal life. It will cost us everything, even the salvation of our souls. Had we better be loyal or disloyal?"

The services at the First Baptist church yesterday were very interesting, both morning and evening. The anthems as rendered by the choir were especially well done. Pastor H. H. Bawden's text in the morning was 2 Cor. 5:14-15, "The Constraining Love of Christ." He first showed what this constraint is—a holding in, or holding together, as Paul was held to the thought of laboring for the glory of God and the salvation of men. The love of Christ which thus constrains, is not our love to Christ, but Christ's love to a lost and ruined world, which led Him to give Himself for us. The reason of this constraint was a consideration of the substitutionary death of Christ, "One died for all," and the union with Christ of those who have by faith committed themselves to Him—"therefore all died," which leads to a new life, a living not for themselves, but to Him who died for them and rose again. The sermon was followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper to a goodly number.

The sermon in the evening was on David, a young man who had learned to trust in God, and obey Him. The story of his life was in part considered, illustrating his trust and obedience, which especially appeared when brought into contrast with the persistent self will, which finally led to open rebellion on the part of Saul. His youth on the hillsides of Bethlehem, caring for his father's sheep, playing the harp, learning to sling, and so unconsciously preparing to slay the Philistine giant, meditating on the works of God and feeding the poetic soul which wrote those psalms which have been the expression of the Christian experience of all the ages since, then the way he was brought to Saul, and how he was led to fight and slay Goliath, were considered, how in all these experiences his trust in God showed itself. Pastor Bawden was unable to finish the subject, and expects to return to it next Sunday, by following the farther history of David's life and work.

Dr. Jones at Y. M. C. A.

Rev. Dr. David Jones, of the M. P. church, delivered the address at the Y. M. C. A. meeting yesterday afternoon, taking as his subject "Reading." He advised that all young men pay more attention to good literature, and dwelt upon the elevating influence of a proper cultivation of the reading habit. The music at the service was particularly good and included a cornet solo by Miss Hannan.

The True Religion.

Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart yesterday preached on various forms of worship and showed that Christianity alone can satisfy the soul. There is no real religion that has not developed from a revelation from above. Nothing less or nothing else than God can give that satisfaction.

Begins New Pastorate.

Rev. Peter W. Snyder, late pastor of Long's Run Presbyterian church at Calcutta, preached his first sermon yesterday as pastor of the Southside Presbyterian church at Pittsburg. The Pittsburg papers speak of him in very complimentary terms.

Paris, Texas, May 2.—William Sheffield, his wife and two daughters were murdered near Walliant, I. Wallenberg was a son-in-law of Sheffield. His wife had deserted him and returned to her father's house. This, it is thought, led to the tragedy. Wallenberg first shot his wife and then the other members of the family, one of the victims being a girl about 5 years old.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY GETS NEW BOOK

Works That Will Be of Interest to Many Recently Placed Upon the Shelves.

Quite a number of new books have been received at Carnegie public library. Among them are the following. "Log of a Cowboy?" Adams; "Love Affairs of An Old Maid," Bell; "Social Unrest," Brooks; "Ancient and Modern Engineering," Burr; "Black Wolf's Breed," Dickson; "Concerning Isabel Carnaby," Fowler; "Master of Craft," "Odd Craft," Jacobs; "Land of Heather," Johnson; "Toward the Rising Sun," Krausz; "Well After All," Moore; "Red Headed Gill," Owen; "Electrical Engineering," Rosenberg; "Money and Banking," Scott; "Guert Ten Eyck," Stoddard; "Harold Dissassions," Treeger; "Tom Sawyer Abroad," Twain.

There have also been liberal donations made at the library recently. Books were donated by the following: Miss Martha Callebe, six volumes; William Earp, four volumes, Andrew Carnegie, one volume. One book of unusual interest has been donated. It is "The Book of Mormon," an account written by the hand of Mormon upon plates taken from the plates of Nephi and was translated by Joseph Smith. It will be used only as a reference book, and will interest quite a number of people who are interested in the Mormon question, which is being much discussed.

There have been 17 new photograph pictures received at the library which will be added to the photograph exhibit which is being held. The pictures are fine, and are the work of Mr. Phillips, Mr. Gotham and Mr. Harrington. They were taken from scenes in New England, Europe, Atlantic City and some in this immediate locality. Of the hundreds of people who have seen the exhibit, including many out-of town people, everyone has expressed it as being a display of photography of which East Liverpool has a right to be proud.

Announcement has been made in accordance with the rule which has been followed out since the opening of the library that from the first of May until the first of November the library will not be open on Sunday afternoons.

The people of the city have availed themselves of the opportunity of reading on Sunday afternoons and during the winter months the reading rooms have been well filled. But during the summer months the reading rooms will not be open on Sundasy.

A Startling Test.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test, resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes: "A patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles, so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation and kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at Will Reed's, C. T. Larkins', C. G. Anderson's and J. D. Holloway's.

We Paid $100,000

For Liquozone—Yet We Give You a 50c. Bottle Free.

This Company, after testing Liquozone for two years in the most difficult germ diseases, paid $100,000 for the American rights. That is by far the highest price ever paid for similar rights on any scientific discovery.

We publish this fact to show you the value of Liquozone. Men of our class don't pay a price like that save for a product of remarkable worth to humanity.

Kills Inside Germs.

The reason for that price is this: Liquozone alone can kill germs in the body without killing the tissues too. Nothing else in the world is so good for the human body; yet Liquozone is a germicide so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a germ that it cannot kill.

Liquozone destroys at once and forever the cause of any germ disease. And there is no other way to do it. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. Medicine is helpless in troubles of this kind.

Not Medicine.

Liquozone is not made by compounding drugs. Its virtues are derived solely from gas, made in large part from the best oxygen producers. By a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time, this gas is made part of the liquid product. Liquozone has, for more than 20 years, been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research.

The result is a product that does what oxygen does. Oxygen is the very source of all vitality, the most essential element of life. Liquozone is a vitalizing tonic with which no other known product can compare. Its effects are exhilarating and purifying. But germs are vegetables; and Liquozone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetable matter.

Liquozone goes wherever the blood goes, destroying every germ in the body. In this way it cures diseases which medicine never cures. It will do more for sick humanity than all the drugs in the world combined.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone kills the germs, wherever they are, and the results are inevitable. By destroying the cause of the trouble, it invariably ends the disease, and forever.

Asthma, Abscess—Anemia, Bronchitis, Blood Poison, Bright's Disease, Bowel Troubles, Coughs—Colds, Consumption, Colic—Croup, Constipation, Catarrh—Cancer, Dysentery—Diarrhea, Dandruff—Drupsy, Hay Fever—Influenza, Kidney Diseases, La Grippe, Leucorrhea, Liver Troubles, Malaria—Neuralgia, Many Heart Troubles, Piles—Pneumonia, Pleurisy—Quinsy, Rheumatism, Skin Diseases, Scrofula—Syphilis, Stomach Troubles, Throat Troubles, Tuberculosis, Tumors—Ulcers, Varicocele, Women's Diseases, Dyspepsia, Eczema—Erysipelas, Fevers—Gall Stones, Goitre—Gout, Gonorrhea—Gleet

All diseases that begin with fever—all inflammation—all catarrh—all contagious diseases—all the results of impure or poisonous blood.

50c. Bottle Free

If you need Liquozone, and have never tried it, please send us this coupon. We will then mail you an order on your local druggist for a full-size bottle, and we will pay your druggist ourselves for it. This is our free gift, made to convince you; to show you what Liquozone is, and what it can do. In justice to yourself, please accept it to-day, for it places you under no obligation whatever.

Liquozone costs 50c. and $1.

There have also been liberal donations made at the library recently. Books were donated by the following: Miss Martha Callebe, six volumes; William Earp, four volumes, Andrew Carnegie, one volume. One book of unusual interest has been donated. It is "The Book of Mormon," an account written by the hand of Mormon upon plates taken from the plates of Nephi and was translated by Joseph Smith. It will be used only as a reference book, and will interest quite a number of people who are interested in the Mormon question, which is being much discussed.

There have been 17 new photograph pictures received at the library which will be added to the photograph exhibit which is being held. The pictures are fine, and are the work of Mr. Phillips, Mr. Gotham and Mr. Harrington. They were taken from scenes in New England, Europe, Atlantic City and some in this immediate locality. Of the hundreds of people who have seen the exhibit, including many out-of town people, everyone has expressed it as being a display of photography of which East Liverpool has a right to be proud.

Announcement has been made in accordance with the rule which has been followed out since the opening of the library that from the first of May until the first of November the library will not be open on Sunday afternoons.

The people of the city have availed themselves of the opportunity of reading on Sunday afternoons and during the winter months the reading rooms have been well filled. But during the summer months the reading rooms will not be open on Sundasy.

We Paid $100,000
For Liquozone—Yet We Give You a 50c. Bottle Free.

This Company, after testing Liquozone for two years in the most difficult germ diseases, paid $100,000 for the American rights. That is by far the highest price ever paid for similar rights on any scientific discovery.
We publish this fact to show you the value of Liquozone. Men of our class don't pay a price like that save for a product of remarkable worth to humanity.

Kills Inside Germs.
The reason for that price is this: Liquozone alone can kill germs in the body without killing the tissues too. Nothing else in the world is so good for the human body; yet Liquozone is a germicide so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a germ that it cannot kill.
Liquozone destroys at once and forever the cause of any germ disease. And there is no other way to do it. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. Medicine is helpless in troubles of this kind.

Not Medicine.
Liquozone is not made by compounding drugs. Its virtues are derived solely from gas, made in large part from the best oxygen producers. By a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time, this gas is made part of the liquid product. Liquozone has, for more than 20 years, been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research.
The result is a product that does what oxygen does. Oxygen is the very source of all vitality, the most essential element of life. Liquozone is a vitalizing tonic with which no other known product can compare. Its effects are exhilarating and purifying. But germs are vegetables; and Liquozone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetable matter.
Liquozone goes wherever the blood goes, destroying every germ in the body. In this way it cures diseases which medicine never cures. It will do more for sick humanity than all the drugs in the world combined.

Germ Diseases.
These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone kills the germs, wherever they are, and the results are inevitable. By destroying the cause of the trouble, it invariably ends the disease, and forever.

THE TRUE LOYALTY TO JESUS CHRIST

Christians' Duty Plainly Explained by Rev. Frederick M. McMillin.

WORTHY OF ALL IT COSTS

Is the Firm Adherence to the Christian Doctrine — Sermons and Services in Other Churches of the City Interesting Followers of the Master.

The large congregations present yesterday at the First Presbyterian church, both morning and evening, were delighted with the sermons delivered by Rev. Frederick N. McMillin, of Dayton, brother of the pastor, who was unable to conduct the services owing to illness. The visiting minister chose for his text in the morning the 67th verse of the sixth chapter of John, "Will ye also go away?" The verse suggested the subject of loyalty and Rev. Mr. McMillin, in an eloquent, forceful and logical manner, gave his interested hearers a sermon of great value. In part he said:

"The verse is taken from the chapter describing the scene when Jesus, before a multitude of people, told them that if they were to be children of God they must eat of the Son's flesh and drink of His blood. Among the crowd assembled was a host of Jews. They marveled at the seemingly strange words of Jesus and turned from Him. A number of others, known as hangers-on, also left, until Jesus was surrounded by His chosen disciples. It was then that He asked, 'Will ye also go away?' It was then the same as now, an almost irresistible desire that came over the disciples to join the crowd of deserters. But no, they possessed love and loyalty for Jesus and stayed with Him. The fidelity of those men has inspired loyalty to the world.

"Loyalty is a grand quality. A true man is loyal to his country, friends, wife and convictions. It is one of the noblest attributes of a human character. Loyalty attains to the greatest and noblest heights of God. The Christian life is not doctrine. It is not church membership that makes one loyal to God. It is not giving money, but how many times is this used to cover disloyalty? The Christian life is individual loyalty to Jesus Christ. It is not the disloyalty of the world that wounds the heart of Jesus. When Jesus looks down upon the scenes surrounding the Yalu river, where two nations are at bloody war, His heart must ache. When He ascended into heaven 2,000 years ago He certainly did not wish for such uprising between nations. But this is not His greatest burden. It must pain Him to note the corruption of the high offices in our own beautiful country and government. He surely is sorrowful over the disgrace brought on the United States senator who disgraced himself and the country. But this is not the greatest burden. It brings sorrow, but is not the greatest burden. The greatest burden is the disloyalty of His own.

"There is a chosen company today. You and I belong to it, as professed Christians of the Presbyterian church. Mark you, you stand today just where those disciples stood when Jesus asked them if they would also go away. Jesus has never deserted us. Where there is a high sense of honor, loyalty always begets loyalty and fidelity always begets fidelity. Is there any wonder that you and I are loyal to the American flag? Suppose one of us were to go to the very center of darkest Africa and were to be mistreated by the natives of that country. The nearest American consul would be applied to and he would protect us. He would resort to the grand old Stars and Stripes which are upheld by the great country of ours. Were it necessary, our rights would be defended by a whole army. Can we then not honor the flag? A man is loyal to his wife because she is loyal to him. God pity the man who expects his wife to be more loyal than he is.

"When Senator Hanna died the newspapers all over the land commented on his life. In some instances he was the subject of adverse criticism. He had faults, as every man has, but there was one feature of his life that stood far above all the others, and it was referred to many times. It was the wonderful power he had over his friends. He always held his friends. Why? Because he was loyal to a friend to the very last. Jesus, having loved His own, loved them to the bitter end. Did He cast you off when you stumbled in sin? Not at all. He is always making intercession for you. He has stood by us though we have been unworthy of it. He said He would never forsake us. When sorrow came, did He desert? No. How then can you, in face of all this, be disloyal to Jesus? It costs something to be loyal. A cheap gospel is preached too often from our pulpits. All the world clamors for a heroic gospel. To be loyal it costs a lot—self-denial, money, time, effort, the best we have, but is it not worth all the cost? Paraphrase the scriptural verse, 'What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?' and make it read, 'What shall it cost a man if he lose the whole world and gain his own soul?' Disloyalty costs us peace of conscience, power and eternal life. It will cost us everything, even the salvation of our souls. Had we better be loyal or disloyal?"

The services at the First Baptist church yesterday were very interesting, both morning and evening. The anthems as rendered by the choir were especially well done. Pastor H. H. Bawden's text in the morning was 2 Cor. 5:14-15, "The Constraining Love of Christ." He first showed what this constraint is—a holding in, or holding together, as Paul was held to the thought of laboring for the glory of God and the salvation of men. The love of Christ which thus constrains, is not our love to Christ, but Christ's love to a lost and ruined world, which led Him to give Himself for us. The reason of this constraint was a consideration of the substitutionary death of Christ, "One died for all," and the union with Christ of those who have by faith committed themselves to Him—"therefore all died," which leads to a new life, a living not for themselves, but to Him who died for them and rose again. The sermon was followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper to a goodly number.

The sermon in the evening was on David, a young man who had learned to trust in God, and obey Him. The story of his life was in part considered, illustrating his trust and obedience, which especially appeared when brought into contrast with the persistent self will, which finally led to open rebellion on the part of Saul. His youth on the hillsides of Bethlehem, caring for his father's sheep, playing the harp, learning to sling, and so unconsciously preparing to slay the Philistine giant, meditating on the works of God and feeding the poetic soul which wrote those psalms which have been the expression of the Christian experience of all the ages since, then the way he was brought to Saul, and how he was led to fight and slay Goliath, were considered, how in all these experiences his trust in God showed itself. Pastor Bawden was unable to finish the subject, and expects to return to it next Sunday, by following the farther history of David's life and work.

Dr. Jones at Y. M. C. A.

Rev. Dr. David Jones, of the M. P. church, delivered the address at the Y. M. C. A. meeting yesterday afternoon, taking as his subject "Reading." He advised that all young men pay more attention to good literature, and dwelt upon the elevating influence of a proper cultivation of the reading habit. The music at the service was particularly good and included a cornet solo by Miss Hannan.

The True Religion.

Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart yesterday preached on various forms of worship and showed that Christianity alone can satisfy the soul. There is no real religion that has not developed from a revelation from above. Nothing less or nothing else than God can give that satisfaction.

Begins New Pastorate.

Rev. Peter W. Snyder, late pastor of Long's Run Presbyterian church at Calcutta, preached his first sermon yesterday as pastor of the Southside Presbyterian church at Pittsburg. The Pittsburg papers speak of him in very complimentary terms.

FAMILY MURDERED.

Farmer Kills Wife, Her Father, Mother and Sister and Himself.

Paris, Texas, May 2.—William Sheffield, his wife and two daughters were murdered near Walliant, I. T., by John Wallenburg, a young farmer, who, it is reported, afterwards committed suicide by taking poison upon reaching the flooded Red river, with a posse in close pursuit, finding that he could not cross the stream.

Wallenberg was a son-in-law of Sheffield. His wife had deserted him and returned to her father's house. This, it is thought, led to the tragedy. Wallenberg first shot his wife and then the other members of the family, one of the victims being a girl about 5 years old.

MALARIA

Germ Infected Air.

Malaria is not confined exclusively to the swamps and marshy regions of the country, but wherever there is bad air this insidious foe to health is found. Poisonous vapors and gases from sewers, and the musty air of damp cellars are laden with the germs of this miserable disease, which are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood and transmitted to every part of the body. Then you begin to feel out of sorts without ever suspecting the cause. No energy or appetite, dull headaches, sleepy and tired and completely fagged out from the slightest exertion, are some of the deplorable effects of this enfeebling malady. As the disease progresses and the blood becomes more deeply poisoned, boils and abscesses and dark or yellow spots appear upon the skin. When the poison is left to ferment and the microbes and germs to multiply in the blood, Liver and Kidney troubles and other serious complications often arise. As Malaria begins and develops in the blood, the treatment to be effective must begin there too. S. S. S. destroys the germs and poisons and purifies the polluted blood, and under its tonic effect the debilitated constitution rapidly recuperates and the system is soon clear of all signs of this depressing disease.

THE TRUE LOYALTY TO JESUS CHRIST

Christians' Duty Plainly Explained by Rev. Frederick M. McMillin.

WORTHY OF ALL IT COSTS

Is the Firm Adherence to the Christian Doctrine — Sermons and Services in Other Churches of the City Interesting Followers of the Master.

The large congregations present yesterday at the First Presbyterian church, both morning and evening, were delighted with the sermons delivered by Rev. Frederick N. McMillin, of Dayton, brother of the pastor, who was unable to conduct the services owing to illness. The visiting minister chose for his text in the morning the 67th verse of the sixth chapter of John, "Will ye also go away?" The verse suggested the subject of loyalty and Rev. Mr. McMillin, in an eloquent, forceful and logical manner, gave his interested hearers a sermon of great value. In part he said:

"The verse is taken from the chapter describing the scene when Jesus, before a multitude of people, told them that if they were to be children of God they must eat of the Son's flesh and drink of His blood. Among the crowd assembled was a host of Jews. They marveled at the seemingly strange words of Jesus and turned from Him. A number of others, known as hangers-on, also left, until Jesus was surrounded by His chosen disciples. It was then that He asked, 'Will ye also go away?' It was then the same as now, an almost irresistible desire that came over the disciples to join the crowd of deserters. But no, they possessed love and loyalty for Jesus and stayed with Him. The fidelity of those men has inspired loyalty to the world.

"Loyalty is a grand quality. A true man is loyal to his country, friends, wife and convictions. It is one of the noblest attributes of a human character. Loyalty attains to the greatest and noblest heights of God. The Christian life is not doctrine. It is not church membership that makes one loyal to God. It is not giving money, but how many times is this used to cover disloyalty? The Christian life is individual loyalty to Jesus Christ. It is not the disloyalty of the world that wounds the heart of Jesus. When Jesus looks down upon the scenes surrounding the Yalu river, where two nations are at bloody war, His heart must ache. When He ascended into heaven 2,000 years ago He certainly did not wish for such uprising between nations. But this is not His greatest burden. It must pain Him to note the corruption of the high offices in our own beautiful country and government. He surely is sorrowful over the disgrace brought on the United States senator who disgraced himself and the country. But this is not the greatest burden. It brings sorrow, but is not the greatest burden. The greatest burden is the disloyalty of His own.

"There is a chosen company today. You and I belong to it, as professed Christians of the Presbyterian church. Mark you, you stand today just where those disciples stood when Jesus asked them if they would also go away. Jesus has never deserted us. Where there is a high sense of honor, loyalty always begets loyalty and fidelity always begets fidelity. Is there any wonder that you and I are loyal to the American flag? Suppose one of us were to go to the very center of darkest Africa and were to be mistreated by the natives of that country. The nearest American consul would be applied to and he would protect us. He would resort to the grand old Stars and Stripes which are upheld by the great country of ours. Were it necessary, our rights would be defended by a whole army. Can we then not honor the flag? A man is loyal to his wife because she is loyal to him. God pity the man who expects his wife to be more loyal than he is.

"When Senator Hanna died the newspapers all over the land commented on his life. In some instances he was the subject of adverse criticism. He had faults, as every man has, but there was one feature of his life that stood far above all the others, and it was referred to many times. It was the wonderful power he had over his friends. He always held his friends. Why? Because he was loyal to a friend to the very last. Jesus, having loved His own, loved them to the bitter end. Did He cast you off when you stumbled in sin? Not at all. He is always making intercession for you. He has stood by us though we have been unworthy of it. He said He would never forsake us. When sorrow came, did He desert? No. How then can you, in face of all this, be disloyal to Jesus? It costs something to be loyal. A cheap gospel is preached too often from our pulpits. All the world clamors for a heroic gospel. To be loyal it costs a lot—self-denial, money, time, effort, the best we have, but is it not worth all the cost? Paraphrase the scriptural verse, 'What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?' and make it read, 'What shall it cost a man if he lose the whole world and gain his own soul?' Disloyalty costs us peace of conscience, power and eternal life. It will cost us everything, even the salvation of our souls. Had we better be loyal or disloyal?"

The services at the First Baptist church yesterday were very interesting, both morning and evening. The anthems as rendered by the choir were especially well done. Pastor H. H. Bawden's text in the morning was 2 Cor. 5:14-15, "The Constraining Love of Christ." He first showed what this constraint is—a holding in, or holding together, as Paul was held to the thought of laboring for the glory of God and the salvation of men. The love of Christ which thus constrains, is not our love to Christ, but Christ's love to a lost and ruined world, which led Him to give Himself for us. The reason of this constraint was a consideration of the substitutionary death of Christ, "One died for all," and the union with Christ of those who have by faith committed themselves to Him—"therefore all died," which leads to a new life, a living not for themselves, but to Him who died for them and rose again. The sermon was followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper to a goodly number.

The sermon in the evening was on David, a young man who had learned to trust in God, and obey Him. The story of his life was in part considered, illustrating his trust and obedience, which especially appeared when brought into contrast with the persistent self will, which finally led to open rebellion on the part of Saul. His youth on the hillsides of Bethlehem, caring for his father's sheep, playing the harp, learning to sling, and so unconsciously preparing to slay the Philistine giant, meditating on the works of God and feeding the poetic soul which wrote those psalms which have been the expression of the Christian experience of all the ages since, then the way he was brought to Saul, and how he was led to fight and slay Goliath, were considered, how in all these experiences his trust in God showed itself. Pastor Bawden was unable to finish the subject, and expects to return to it next Sunday, by following the farther history of David's life and work.

Dr. Jones at Y. M. C. A.

Rev. Dr. David Jones, of the M. P. church, delivered the address at the Y. M. C. A. meeting yesterday afternoon, taking as his subject "Reading." He advised that all young men pay more attention to good literature, and dwelt upon the elevating influence of a proper cultivation of the reading habit. The music at the service was particularly good and included a cornet solo by Miss Hannan.

The True Religion.

Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart yesterday preached on various forms of worship and showed that Christianity alone can satisfy the soul. There is no real religion that has not developed from a revelation from above. Nothing less or nothing else than God can give that satisfaction.

Begins New Pastorate.

Rev. Peter W. Snyder, late pastor of Long's Run Presbyterian church at Calcutta, preached his first sermon yesterday as pastor of the Southside Presbyterian church at Pittsburg. The Pittsburg papers speak of him in very complimentary terms.

THE TRUE LOYALTY TO JESUS CHRIST

Christians' Duty Plainly Explained by Rev. Frederick M. McMillin.

WORTHY OF ALL IT COSTS

Is the Firm Adherence to the Christian Doctrine — Sermons and Services in Other Churches of the City Interesting Followers of the Master.

The large congregations present yesterday at the First Presbyterian church, both morning and evening, were delighted with the sermons delivered by Rev. Frederick N. McMillin, of Dayton, brother of the pastor, who was unable to conduct the services owing to illness. The visiting minister chose for his text in the morning the 67th verse of the sixth chapter of John, "Will ye also go away?" The verse suggested the subject of loyalty and Rev. Mr. McMillin, in an eloquent, forceful and logical manner, gave his interested hearers a sermon of great value. In part he said:

"The verse is taken from the chapter describing the scene when Jesus, before a multitude of people, told them that if they were to be children of God they must eat of the Son's flesh and drink of His blood. Among the crowd assembled was a host of Jews. They marveled at the seemingly strange words of Jesus and turned from Him. A number of others, known as hangers-on, also left, until Jesus was surrounded by His chosen disciples. It was then that He asked, 'Will ye also go away?' It was then the same as now, an almost irresistible desire that came over the disciples to join the crowd of deserters. But no, they possessed love and loyalty for Jesus and stayed with Him. The fidelity of those men has inspired loyalty to the world.

"Loyalty is a grand quality. A true man is loyal to his country, friends, wife and convictions. It is one of the noblest attributes of a human character. Loyalty attains to the greatest and noblest heights of God. The Christian life is not doctrine. It is not church membership that makes one loyal to God. It is not giving money, but how many times is this used to cover disloyalty? The Christian life is individual loyalty to Jesus Christ. It is not the disloyalty of the world that wounds the heart of Jesus. When Jesus looks down upon the scenes surrounding the Yalu river, where two nations are at bloody war, His heart must ache. When He ascended into heaven 2,000 years ago He certainly did not wish for such uprising between nations. But this is not His greatest burden. It must pain Him to note the corruption of the high offices in our own beautiful country and government. He surely is sorrowful over the disgrace brought on the United States senator who disgraced himself and the country. But this is not the greatest burden. It brings sorrow, but is not the greatest burden. The greatest burden is the disloyalty of His own.

"There is a chosen company today. You and I belong to it, as professed Christians of the Presbyterian church. Mark you, you stand today just where those disciples stood when Jesus asked them if they would also go away. Jesus has never deserted us. Where there is a high sense of honor, loyalty always begets loyalty and fidelity always begets fidelity. Is there any wonder that you and I are loyal to the American flag? Suppose one of us were to go to the very center of darkest Africa and were to be mistreated by the natives of that country. The nearest American consul would be applied to and he would protect us. He would resort to the grand old Stars and Stripes which are upheld by the great country of ours. Were it necessary, our rights would be defended by a whole army. Can we then not honor the flag? A man is loyal to his wife because she is loyal to him. God pity the man who expects his wife to be more loyal than he is.

"When Senator Hanna died the newspapers all over the land commented on his life. In some instances he was the subject of adverse criticism. He had faults, as every man has, but there was one feature of his life that stood far above all the others, and it was referred to many times. It was the wonderful power he had over his friends. He always held his friends. Why? Because he was loyal to a friend to the very last. Jesus, having loved His own, loved them to the bitter end. Did He cast you off when you stumbled in sin? Not at all. He is always making intercession for you. He has stood by us though we have been unworthy of it. He said He would never forsake us. When sorrow came, did He desert? No. How then can you, in face of all this, be disloyal to Jesus? It costs something to be loyal. A cheap gospel is preached too often from our pulpits. All the world clamors for a heroic gospel. To be loyal it costs a lot—self-denial, money, time, effort, the best we have, but is it not worth all the cost? Paraphrase the scriptural verse, 'What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?' and make it read, 'What shall it cost a man if he lose the whole world and gain his own soul?' Disloyalty costs us peace of conscience, power and eternal life. It will cost us everything, even the salvation of our souls. Had we better be loyal or disloyal?"

The services at the First Baptist church yesterday were very interesting, both morning and evening. The anthems as rendered by the choir were especially well done. Pastor H. H. Bawden's text in the morning was 2 Cor. 5:14-15, "The Constraining Love of Christ." He first showed what this constraint is—a holding in, or holding together, as Paul was held to the thought of laboring for the glory of God and the salvation of men. The love of Christ which thus constrains, is not our love to Christ, but Christ's love to a lost and ruined world, which led Him to give Himself for us. The reason of this constraint was a consideration of the substitutionary death of Christ, "One died for all," and the union with Christ of those who have by faith committed themselves to Him—"therefore all died," which leads to a new life, a living not for themselves, but to Him who died for them and rose again. The sermon was followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper to a goodly number.

The sermon in the evening was on David, a young man who had learned to trust in God, and obey Him. The story of his life was in part considered, illustrating his trust and obedience, which especially appeared when brought into contrast with the persistent self will, which finally led to open rebellion on the part of Saul. His youth on the hillsides of Bethlehem, caring for his father's sheep, playing the harp, learning to sling, and so unconsciously preparing to slay the Philistine giant, meditating on the works of God and feeding the poetic soul which wrote those psalms which have been the expression of the Christian experience of all the ages since, then the way he was brought to Saul, and how he was led to fight and slay Goliath, were considered, how in all these experiences his trust in God showed itself. Pastor Bawden was unable to finish the subject, and expects to return to it next Sunday, by following the farther history of David's life and work.

Dr. Jones at Y. M. C. A.

Rev. Dr. David Jones, of the M. P. church, delivered the address at the Y. M. C. A. meeting yesterday afternoon, taking as his subject "Reading." He advised that all young men pay more attention to good literature, and dwelt upon the elevating influence of a proper cultivation of the reading habit. The music at the service was particularly good and included a cornet solo by Miss Hannan.

The True Religion.

Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart yesterday preached on various forms of worship and showed that Christianity alone can satisfy the soul. There is no real religion that has not developed from a revelation from above. Nothing less or nothing else than God can give that satisfaction.

Begins New Pastorate.

Rev. Peter W. Snyder, late pastor of Long's Run Presbyterian church at Calcutta, preached his first sermon yesterday as pastor of the Southside Presbyterian church at Pittsburg. The Pittsburg papers speak of him in very complimentary terms.

FAMILY MURDERED.

Farmer Kills Wife, Her Father, Mother and Sister and Himself.

Paris, Texas, May 2.—William Sheffield, his wife and two daughters were murdered near Walliant, I. T., by John Wallenburg, a young farmer, who, it is reported, afterwards committed suicide by taking poison upon reaching the flooded Red river, with a posse in close pursuit, finding that he could not cross the stream.

Wallenberg was a son-in-law of Sheffield. His wife had deserted him and returned to her father's house. This, it is thought, led to the tragedy. Wallenberg first shot his wife and then the other members of the family, one of the victims being a girl about 5 years old.

MALARIA

Germ Infected Air.

Malaria is not confined exclusively to the swamps and marshy regions of the country, but wherever there is bad air this insidious foe to health is found. Poisonous vapors and gases from sewers, and the musty air of damp cellars are laden with the germs of this miserable disease, which are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood and transmitted to every part of the body. Then you begin to feel out of sorts without ever suspecting the cause. No energy or appetite, dull headaches, sleepy and tired and completely fagged out from the slightest exertion, are some of the deplorable effects of this enfeebling malady. As the disease progresses and the blood becomes more deeply poisoned, boils and abscesses and dark or yellow spots appear upon the skin. When the poison is left to ferment and the microbes and germs to multiply in the blood, Liver and Kidney troubles and other serious complications often arise. As Malaria begins and develops in the blood, the treatment to be effective must begin there too. S. S. S. destroys the germs and poisons and purifies the polluted blood, and under its tonic effect the debilitated constitution rapidly recuperates and the system is soon clear of all signs of this depressing disease.

S. S. S. is a guaranteed purely vegetable remedy, mild, pleasant and harmless. Write us if you want medical advice or any special information about your case. This will cost you nothing.

an action for divorce, and I now stand ready to forgive my wife for all that she has done in the past that has not been right. A higher judge than I shall pass sentence upon wrong actions. I have always provided for and treated my wife only as a good husband should. I cannot tell how badly I feel over this occurrence.

"Since the woman from Beaver Falls, who has several aliases, came to our home," he continued, "it seemed that she possessed some strange power or influence over my wife which did not make her seem like the woman she was before. I am sorry for this, for our home was a most happy one."

A tear came to the minister's eye when he pulled back the lapel of his coat and said: "This was our baby when she was 4 months old." This little tot is now at the home of the parents of Mrs. Glass at Beaver Falls, and only words of praise are said for the old couple. "My baby will have good treatment while she is at their home," she said.

"The officials at the mill are treating me most kindly," said Mr. Glass, "and I do not propose to do anything that would change their opinion of me. I do not think I shall ever feel able to face a congregation again, since this affair has happened, and now all my ambition has been shattered."

made some noise. The proprietor heard the kicks against his door and he knew it was all day with him. He sent his customers up stairs. They went three stories and would have been going yet had they wings. They had hardly disappeared before Aufderheide and Dunn commenced banging at the front door. The excitement was too much for Flesch. He staggered up to his bedroom and fell into a faint on his bed.

Mrs. Flesch was then called into action. She met the officers and told them she thought it was about the meanest trick any man could play on a poor person. She told Chief Wyman that he was always after the poor and for about five minutes he was the subject of severe vituperation. She is German and in her excitement used the language of her native tongue. No one present could understand it but Aufderheide, and he was having a picnic. When he told her, "Gieb ihm die Hoelle," she renewed her tirade and had the chief known what she said about him there certainly would have been a woman occupant of the woman's department at the city hall.

The officers failed to find a soul in the saloon proper. They knew a bunch had been there, however, and would not turn back simply because there was nobody in sight. The chief started up a winding stairway and finally ran onto the entire outfit, huddled in a dark corner in the attic. No attempt was made to arouse Flesch, who was down and out. It is said that the saloon was "tipped" off by a man who said he was told to do so by God. He went to the saloon, bought a drink and after he drank it a pigeon whispered into his ear: "You have done wrong. Go and tell on the man who is running the saloon, so you will not be tempted any more." The man did so, and the raid was complete.

Chief Wyman and Officer Dawson caught Guthrie last evening. They had trouble in entering, and after they did get in only found two men besides the proprietor. Guthrie appeared before the mayor this morning, pleaded guilty and was fined $50 and costs.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Rachel M. Young.

Lisbon, May 2.—(Special.)—Mrs. Rachel M. Young, wife of Rev. Alexander I. Young, pastor of the Lisbon U. P. Church, died in Riverside hospital here at 9:45 o'clock last night. Although death ensued after a protracted illness, the end came rather unexpectedly, her trouble assuming an acute stage only two or three days ago. A year ago last March, Rev. and Mrs. Young went to California, and spent three months on the Pacific coast in the hope of benefiting her health, but, while she experienced some relief, it was not in the substantial way that had been hoped for and she gradually grew worse. Her husband and their six children were at her bedside when death came and the end was very peaceful.

Mrs. Young, whose maiden name was Rachel M. Stewart, was born in the old Stewart homestead in Wellsville, May 18, 1848, the daughter of James and Mary Stewart. She attended school in Wheeling and later graduated at the seminary at Washington, Pa. On February 28, 1871, she was married in Wellsville to Rev. Mr. Young, who was then pastor of the U. P. churches at Hookstown and Tomlinson's Run. A year or so later, they went to Turtle Creek, Pa., where Rev. Mr. Young was pastor for 13 years and from there went to McKeesport, Pa., where a year ago he concluded a pastorate of 16 years. He was recently installed as pastor of the U. P. church in this city and Mrs. Young had been here but a short time.

Besides her husband, the deceased is survived by five sons and one daughter, as follows: Rev. Robert S. Young, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church in Toledo; Frank W. and Clyde F., chiefs of the shipping and counting departments respectively of the National Tube company, and James Theodore and Miss M. Lorena Young, who live with their father here. A sister, Mrs. Mary B. Fulton, of Ben Avon, Pa., also survives her.

Funeral services will be held at the family residence here at 7:30 tomorrow evening, Rev. J. C. Taggart, pastor of the First U. P. church of East Liverpool, officiating. Dr. Taggart, is a particular friend of the family, having been a college classmate of Rev. Mr. Young. They were licensed to preach on the same day. Interment will be in the family burial plot in Wellsville at noon Wednesday.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Birthday Party.

A pleasant party was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Morrey, at Sebring, in honor of the anniversary of the eighteenth birthday of their son, William Morrey, Jr. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers. Mrs. Morrey had provided grandly for the event with everything good to eat. The evening was spent with games and music. Arthur Matkin, a noted baritone, lately of an English opera company, was present and rendered some fine piano playing and singing. Addresses were made by William Wallbank and Mayor Gibbons. William Morrey responded. Mr. Morrey received many beautiful presents, including a beautiful bible from his father and $50 from his mother.

AT THE THEATER

The scenes of the opera, Egypta, which is to be given by local talent at the Rock Springs theatre, May 16, 17 and 18, are laid in the Land of Egypt during the reign of Rameses, the Great, who lived some three thousand years ago. The story follows the life of Moses from the time when as a babe he is hidden among the bulrushes, till, as the prophet of the Hebrews, he leads his people out from bondage. The oriental nature of the work gives scope for the most brilliant and interesting effects in the costuming and scenery.

The Cairo (Ill.) Telegram says: The appearance of Paul Gilmore and his admirable company in "The Mummy and the Humming Bird" at the opera house last night, proved one of the dramatic treats of the season, as was anticipated. So enthusiastic was the large audience in its approval that curtain calls, a rare tribute in Cairo, were bestowed upon the star. Miss Margaret Drew, the leading lady, was delightfully natural and the work of John Martin as Giuseppe, is also deserving of special commendation. At the opera house Friday evening.

Mrs. Young, whose maiden name was Rachel M. Stewart, was born in the old Stewart homestead in Wellsville, May 18, 1848, the daughter of James and Mary Stewart. She attended school in Wheeling and later graduated at the seminary at Washington, Pa. On February 28, 1871, she was married in Wellsville to Rev. Mr. Young, who was then pastor of the U. P. churches at Hookstown and Tomlinson's Run. A year or so later, they went to Turtle Creek, Pa., where Rev. Mr. Young was pastor for 13 years and from there went to McKeesport, Pa., where a year ago he concluded a pastorate of 16 years. He was recently installed as pastor of the U. P. church in this city and Mrs. Young had been here but a short time.

Besides her husband, the deceased is survived by five sons and one daughter, as follows: Rev. Robert S. Young, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church in Toledo; Frank W. and Clyde F., chiefs of the shipping and counting departments respectively of the National Tube company, and James Theodore and Miss M. Lorena Young, who live with their father here. A sister, Mrs. Mary B. Fulton, of Ben Avon, Pa., also survives her.

Funeral services will be held at the family residence here at 7:30 tomorrow evening, Rev. J. C. Taggart, pastor of the First U. P. church of East Liverpool, officiating. Dr. Taggart, is a particular friend of the family, having been a college classmate of Rev. Mr. Young. They were licensed to preach on the same day. Interment will be in the family burial plot in Wellsville at noon Wednesday.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Birthday Party.

A pleasant party was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Morrey, at Sebring, in honor of the anniversary of the eighteenth birthday of their son, William Morrey, Jr. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers. Mrs. Morrey had provided grandly for the event with everything good to eat. The evening was spent with games and music. Arthur Matkin, a noted baritone, lately of an English opera company, was present and rendered some fine piano playing and singing. Addresses were made by William Wallbank and Mayor Gibbons. William Morrey responded. Mr. Morrey received many beautiful presents, including a beautiful bible from his father and $50 from his mother.

AT THE THEATER

The scenes of the opera, Egypta, which is to be given by local talent at the Rock Springs theatre, May 16, 17 and 18, are laid in the Land of Egypt during the reign of Rameses, the Great, who lived some three thousand years ago. The story follows the life of Moses from the time when as a babe he is hidden among the bulrushes, till, as the prophet of the Hebrews, he leads his people out from bondage. The oriental nature of the work gives scope for the most brilliant and interesting effects in the costuming and scenery.

The Cairo (Ill.) Telegram says: The appearance of Paul Gilmore and his admirable company in "The Mummy and the Humming Bird" at the opera house last night, proved one of the dramatic treats of the season, as was anticipated. So enthusiastic was the large audience in its approval that curtain calls, a rare tribute in Cairo, were bestowed upon the star. Miss Margaret Drew, the leading lady, was delightfully natural and the work of John Martin as Giuseppe, is also deserving of special commendation. At the opera house Friday evening.
